Tax Increases For Ohioans Predicted Soon

Gov. DiSalle Prods Legislature to Begin Grinding Out Laws

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—It begins to look as though Ohioans will be paying many tax increases by May 1. The state needs the money.

Aided by a push from Gov. Michael V. DiSalle, the legislative mill in the Statehouse will begin to grind out the tax increases next month. These probably will include 2-cent tax increases on cigarettes and gasoline.

DiSalle asked for speed on the tax program when Finance Director James Maloon warned that the treasury will be bare sometime in May.

Battle Over SUB

Even while the big tax push is barely getting started, legislative attention will be diverted for a time today toward the battle over supplemental unemployment benefits (SUB) in the Ohio House.

The Senate - approved bill to legalize simultaneous SUB payments and state jobless benefits comes to a floor vote today and the big question is: Will the House adopt an emergency clause to make the bill effective as soon as it is signed by the governor?

The odds seem to be against the emergency clause. The Senate passed the bill, House Democrats plan a bitter fight to keep it in the bill, but Republican opposition and possible defection by some Democrats indicate a losing battle.

The Democrats, 77 strong, must keep their ranks intact and pick up 16 Republican votes to muster the two-thirds approval needed to keep the emergency clause alive.

SUB opponents have indicated an attempt may be made to carry the issue to the ballot if the House kills the emergency clause. The 90-day waiting period would give them a chance to pass referendum petitions.

Maloon, in a letter to DiSalle, pointed out the state treasury's critical situation. He asserted:

"Unless legislative action is taken to meet the situation, the state will undoubtedly reach an insolvent position in a matter of a few months."

In May, when the state's quarterly payment of 45 million dollars into the school subsidy fund is due, it may be necessary for the treasury to borrow Liquor Department funds to keep state operations going. The state's fiscal year ends June 30.

Speedy action on the tax measures would help the immediate money crisis because collections could start as soon as they are signed by the governor. Tax mea-

Voting Device On Display at Courthouse

As a prelude to a scheduled trial of voting machines in Lisbon and East Palestine, one of the devices was placed in the first floor corridor at the Courthouse in Lisbon Tuesday to allow voters to familiarize themselves with its operation, the County Election Board at East Liverpool said today.

About April 1 the second machine will be set up for demonstration in the old city hall building at East Palestine, the board added.

Loan of the two "demonstrators" was part of the arrangement made by the Shoup Voting Machine Co. of Canton, the supplier, when the Election Board recommended to county commissioners recently that the machines be tried on a rental basis in the two communities at the May primaries and the November general election.

In connection with the trial, the Election Board has started to seek polling place locations where the machines can be used. Frank R. O'Hanlon, clerk, explained, As the machines weigh about 900 pounds, the polling place must have a "substantial" floor, he said.

The board also hopes to arrange on-site storage, possibly in public

Macmillan Asks United Policy

British Leader Arrives In Canada

OTTAWA (AP)—British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan, on his way to talks with President Eisenhower, today urged the Western powers to frame a united policy on Germany based on "firm principles combined with a readiness to negotiate."

Macmillan arrived by plane from London. Before leaving for Washington Thursday, he will fill in Prime Minister John Diefenbaker and other Canadian officials on his Berlin crisis talks in Moscow with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

Macmillan plans to see ailing U.S. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles at Walter Reed Army Hospital before he meets with Eisenhower.

Diefenbaker and other officials were on hand to greet Macmillan, who led off his remarks with a tribute to Canadian Foreign Secretary Sidney Smith, who died Tuesday.

Macmillan said it was generally accepted that East-West negotiations on Germany must take place this summer.

Speaking first in English and switching later to French, Macmillan said he went to Moscow to feel out the ground, and he believed he had attained success.

The British leader, accompanied by Foreign Minister Selwyn Lloyd, hopes to convince Eisenhower that a summit meeting with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev can solve the explosive Berlin situation without shooting.

Officials in Washington expressed belief Eisenhower's speech Monday, conditionally endorsing a summit meeting, had greatly improved the atmosphere for the talks with Macmillan. The President agreed to a top level meeting in the summer if a foreign ministers' conference on Germany proposed for mid-May gives promise that the government heads can agree on anything.

Macmillan's visit to Eisenhower will climax the series of conferences he has carried on with

Two Garages Here Visited by Thieves

Thieves took $118 from one of two automobile agencies that were entered sometime between 9 p.m. Monday and 7:30 a.m. Tuesday.

Jerry Jeffries of 536 Frankl in Ave. told police he noticed a broken window on the east side of the Broomall Pontiac Co. building at 890 E. Pershing when he arrived for work Tuesday morning.

Glenn Broomall, president of the firm, said a filing cabinet had been forced open and $89 in checks and $29 in cash taken from it.

Police also received a report from Robert M. Zimmerman of Zimmerman Auto Sales, 170 N. Lundy, that someone entered that building by breaking a window in one of the offices and ransacked a filing cabinet and other drawers in the building. Zimmerman told police that nothing was missing.

Pep Rally Planned For Salem Team

Early Bird Fans Gobble Up Tickets

All the adult tickets for the Salem-Middletown state tournament game in Columbus Friday night were sold within a period of one hour and 15 minutes when they were placed on sale to the public Tuesday at the Senior High School.

Principal Beman Ludwig reported. The tickets were to go on sale from 6 to 9 p.m. but were sold between 2:30 and 3:45 p.m., Mr. Ludwig said, because enough people were lined up at that time to sufficiently take up all the available tickets.

THE FIRST FANS lined up at 6:30 a.m., some 11 and one-half. No report was available on actually how many tickets were sold, but it was about 500.

Hours before the tickets were originally planned to go on sale. Ludwig opened the building at 8:15 a.m. but was informed that Aubrey Cain and Claire Leipper had been waiting outside since 6:30 a.m.

People fell in behind each other as the line got longer. Mrs. Donald Rich and Mrs. Norman Smith were credited with the idea of passing out numbered cards so that each person knew their place in line. Donald DeJane got in line around 10 a.m. and received No. 98, testifying to the public's enthusiasm over the tournament tickets.

With the numbers, persons were able to move about inside the gymnasium lobby. It was predominantly men at the beginning of the line but as the line got longer more women apparently substituting for their working husbands, joined the procession.

Some sat on the floor and read while others played cards while passing the time with idle conversation.

THE LINE GOT SO LONG around 2:15 p.m. that Principal Ludwig, upon the suggestion of the people in line, started selling tickets at around 2:30 p.m. because there were more fans than there were tickets. By 3:45 p.m. all the tickets were gone.

Fred Burchfield and Herbert Jones of the faculty sold the tickets while Deane Phillips, equipped with a clip board, checked the identification of each person in line to make sure they were from Salem.

Student tickets were sold Monday after school and Tuesday morning before school.

The ticket situation at Cleveland East Tech High School was worse than Salem's problem, it was learned. Around 3,000 people were on hand to grab up just 700 adult tickets when they were placed on sale Tuesday.

SCHOOL FOR SALEM students will be dismissed Friday noon. The Quaker City Bus Co. plans to run one or two buses for local students depending on the need.

Medical Society Hears Cleveland

Dr. Fiorando Simeone, professor of surgery at Lakeside Hospital in Cleveland, was the guest speaker when the Columbiana County Medical Society met Tuesday evening at the Wick Hotel in Lisbon.

Dr. Simeone gave a comprehensive discussion on varicose veins and chronic leg ulcers.

During the business meeting conducted by president Dr. William Kolozsi, the Society decided to lend financial support to the health tent at this year's Columbiana County Fair in August.

A committee was appointed to revamp the constitution of the society. The group also gave consideration to accept certain non-medical members into the Society as honorary or associate members. These would be key people in the county such as social workers and others interested in the public welfare.

The next Society meeting will be April 21 at Lisbon.

Council Calls For Curb On Spending

Hays Calls Defense Chiefs

Wants Clarification Of Ike Remark on Use of Troops

WASHINGTON (AP) — Defense chiefs face questioning today as to what kind of war the United States would fight if the Berlin crisis exploded.

Rep. Wayne L. Hays (D-Ohio) said he considers such questions pertinent to what kind of military foreign aid should be approved.

Secretary of Defense Neil H. McElroy and Gen. Nathan F. Twining, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, were called as witnesses before the House Foreign Affairs Committee, which is considering President Eisenhower's $3,930,000,000 foreign aid program.

Hays, a committee member, said he wanted to question the military officials "to clarify President Eisenhower's apparent statement that we would not use ground troops in Europe."

Hays said this statement at an Eisenhower news conference, coupled with earlier administration statements that the United States would not fire the first intercontinental ballistic missile "might be taken as a blank check."

"I don't think the President meant that," Hays said, "but it seems to me he may well be misunderstood by (Soviet Premier Nikita) Khrushchev. I think it would be very dangerous to leave things as confused as they are now."

Hays said in an interview that if the United States really does not mean to use ground troops in any possible European clash, the argument that military aid is needed to maintain a shield of such troops loses most of its value.

Rep. Thomas E. Morgan (D-Pa.), chairman of the House Committee indicated meanwhile that this year's aid program may be cut even more sharply than the 650-million-dollar cut in Eisenhower's requests made last year.

House Group Postpones Action on Health Shots

By News Correspondent

COLUMBUS — The health committee of the state house of representatives put off for another week Tuesday its decision on whether polio shots should be required for all Ohio children.

A subcommittee's recommendation that the bill be extended to include immunization against four other communicable diseases led to the postponement by Chairman Vernon G. Hisrich (D-Tuscarawas).

The subcommittee, in turn, was reported split, two to one, between the first and second choices offered by the state health department and the Ohio State Medical Association.

Spokesmen for both had testified in earlier hearings that they preferred to maintain the present law, leaving the decision to local boards of education.

They added, however, that if polio shots were required on a state wide basis, they wanted smallpox, tetanus, whooping cough and diphtheria immunization also included.

The subcommittee's report favored that action but included a provision that the present remain on the books as well. This would allow local board to require immunization that may be developed in the future against diseases other than the five specified in the proposed law.

The present statute does not spell out specific ailments but applies to any communicable disease. A bill of far-reaching importance in damage suits was recommended for passage by the house

Salem Girl Bitten by Dog Awarded $1,500

LISBON — A Common Pleas Court jury late Tuesday awarded $1,500 to a Salem girl on whose behalf her father had filed a personal injury suit against a Salem man and his wife as a result of injuries suffered when the girl was bitten by their dog.

Robert Barakin of 333 W. 10th St. sought $20,000 for his daughter, Debora Jean, 5, who was bitten by a dog owned by Mr. and Mrs. Stephen A. Grubish of 290 W. 10th St.

The jury members deliberated over two hours before agreeing on the $1,500. Judge Raymond Buzard presided over the two-day trial.

Congress Hears Irish President

O'Kelly Beams Way Through Busy Day

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Sean T. O'Kelly of Ireland told a joint session of Congress today Ireland will work to dissipate unnecessary suspicions among nations of the world.

The 76-year-old Irish President is the first to make an official U.S. visit.

"One of the dangers that confront mankind is an exacerbated antagonism between the so-called colonial and anti-colonial countries," he said in his prepared address.

"As well as being a European country, Ireland is also a country with a long and a well-known history of stubborn resistance to foreign rule."

"In that position, Ireland can hope to play in the United Nations and elsewhere a useful part, by helping to dissipate unnecessary suspicions, and seeking to create a better climate for international understanding."

O'Kelly, whom President Eisenhower greeted Tuesday as "the president of all of us," said his appearance before Congress is among the proudest experiences of his life.

He recalled that Charles Stewart Parnell, the Irish patriot, addressed Congress in 1890. He said Parnell took back to Ireland the

Departments of City to Submit Reports Monthly

Finance Chairman Koenreich Warns Of Limited Funds

Acting on a recommendation by Fred Koenreich, finance committee chairman, City Council Tuesday night requested that all city department heads keep a running tally of expenditures and commitments and present a written report to Council at the beginning of each month.

This action by Council comes on the heels of much discussion on the city's financial condition.

At recent meetings it has been pointed out that the city is barely meeting its payrolls, and is unable to catch up to any great extent on paying its back bills.

Koenreich said that he feels a report of this nature will enable Council to better regulate spending in all departments, in view of limited operating revenue.

He added that he would like to see department heads keep their

Council Resolution Lauds Quaker Cagers

City Council, at its meeting Thursday night, adopted a resolution congratulating each member of the Salem High School basketball team and wishing them good luck as they prepare to enter the state tournament at Columbus.

Copies will be given to each player and Coaches John Cabas and Carl Zeller at a pep assembly at the school Thursday morning.

Council, by resolution, goes on record as "Loving Those Quakers" and states that "the affairs of the city, however important they may be . . . hereby yield and concede priority to the Quakers this coming weekend."

reports by funds rather than by departments, because some, such as the service department, operate from more than one fund.

Koenreich further said, "By doing this we will always have at hand a true picture of the city's financial condition."

City Treasurer James Criswell said that he and Helen Coyne, city auditor, both would be glad to help in the compiling of such reports.

First Ward Councilman Rudy Linder told Council that "although the reports will be on a voluntary basis, it would behoove all departments to comply with the request."

Koenreich reminded Council that the city still has unpaid bills amounting to some $2,100 from last year. He stated that he feels a departmental report of expenditures and commitments might well help overcome this sort of over-draft in the future.

Koenreich also told Council that the annual appropriation ordinance for 1959 will be ready for presentation April 7.

The appropriation this year for the general fund amounts to $283,895 which is $34,365 less than the $318,260 appropriation in 1958.

Table Zoning Proposal Council last night voted to table the amendment to the zoning ordinance and await the decision of the City Planning Commission before taking action on the measure.

At a public hearing Monday night Council received complaints from the property owners in the vicinity of the Army Reserve Training Center, which according to the ordinance, would be allowed to expand.

An ordinance regulating fraudulent advertising and "going out of business sales" was referred back to the ordinance committee for further study.

Council approved payment of a $21 claim from Fred Krauss to pay for a damaged auto tire.

Easter Sales Ahead of '58

Optimism Keynote Among Merchants

NEW YORK (AP)—Rising prosperity, a booming stock market and a return to fashions that flatter the female form are putting new life into the nation's Easter retail trade.

So say many of the merchants, bankers and Chamber of Commerce officials interviewed by The Associated Press in a coast-to-coast survey.

"Business is shaping up beautifully," says an executive of a big department store on Chicago's busy State Street. "Easter sales are far ahead of last year."

People are spending with more confidence," said Richard H. Rich, president of Rich's in Atlanta.

"Consumers are more confident and seem to be spending more," observes Joseph Liebman, senior vice president of L. Bamberger & Co., Newark, N.J. "The stock market is healthy and that always seems to be a good indicator."

Laurence Mallinckrodt, president of the Scruggs, Vandervoort, Barney in St. Louis said: "Sales are very good compared to last year and we still have a few selling days to go."

While optimism is the keynote, you'll find dissenters here and there. A New York department store executive complains that "women don't get excited about fashions when there's a half foot of snow on the ground." Wide areas of the Northeast and upper Midwest were blanketed by a heavy snowfall late last week, and store sales took a nosedive.

Other localized deterrents to an unbounded shopping spree include: persistent pockets of unemployment in some industrial centers, scattered state and local tax increases, a printers' strike that closed daily newspapers in Columbus, Ohio, for two weeks and—in cities where winter has lingered on—the earlier Easter date.

Not all merchants regard the earlier Easter as a handicap. In some Southern and Western cities where the weather has been mild, it is considered an asset. That's the sentiment of merchants in Los Angeles where the mercury climbed into the high 80s while snow fell in New York. It's echoed by store officials in Miami, San Francisco, Dallas, Denver and Kansas City.

Inter-racial Marriages Now Legal In Nevada

CARSON CITY, Nev. (AP)—Inter-racial marriages are now legal in Nevada after a 98-year ban dating back to territorial days.

A bill repealing the old statute was signed Tuesday by Gov. Grant Sawyer. The old law was held unconstitutional by Judge Taylor Wines in Reno last December when he granted a marriage license to San Francisco longshore leader Harry Bridges and his Nisei fiancée, Noriko Sawada.

Judge Wines observed that marriage was a right, not a privilege.

TO VISIT SOVIET UNION

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP)—Prime Minister Djuanda has accepted an invitation from Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev to visit the Soviet Union this summer. Djuanda told newsmen he plans to go in June if conditions in Indonesia permit him to leave the country then. The trip, he said, is designed to improve friendly relations with the Soviet Union.

CHILDREN OF THE BIBLE

by Patrick and Garrison

SAMUEL

"And the child Samuel ministered unto the Lord before Eli."

—1 Samuel 3:1

Like many of God's prepared messengers and prophets, the child Samuel was born of faith. His mother Hannah had prayed long for a son, and had promised God that her child would serve Him.

When the boy was very young, his mother took him to Eli, the priest. "For this child I prayed; and the Lord hath given me my petition which I asked of Him."

In fulfillment of her own promise, she went on, she had brought Samuel back to the Temple at Shiloh, where she had prayed for him. "As long as he liveth, he shall be lent to the Lord."

So Samuel remained under the care of Eli the priest. He did many chores such as dusting the chests where the scrolls of prayer were kept, polishing the trumpets that were used to proclaim festivals, and carrying oil for the temple lamps.

Eli had two sons of his own, but they were lazy and indifferent and preferred to roam the streets with companions their age.

One night after his tasks were finished, the boy Samuel—who was then about seven years old—lay down on his pallet to sleep. Through a latticework he could see the flickering light of the lamp of God, burning before the ark in the tabernacle. Drowsily he watched the dancing shadows, as he said a final good-night prayer.

Suddenly he heard his name being called. Quickly he got up, thinking that Eli had summoned him. He ran into the priest's chamber. "Here am I," he said. "Did you call me?"

But Eli shook his head. "I called not. Lie down again."

Samuel, a little puzzled, returned to his bed. Soon he heard his name again. Certainly Eli was calling him. But when he went in to the priest, Eli again said, "I called not, my son: Lie down again."

Again Samuel returned to his pallet, thinking that because of Eli's age, he may have called in his sleep. For "Samuel did not yet know the Lord, neither was the word of the Lord yet revealed to him."

When he heard the call a third time, he went in to Eli and said firmly: "Here am I; for you did call me."

Eli knew then that it was God who called. He told Samuel to lie down again. This the boy did, and when he heard his name, answered: "Speak, Lord, for thy servant heareth."

And God spoke to him, telling him of events to come. Samuel lay awake until morning, pondering the things that had been revealed to him. Then he arose and "opened the doors of the house of the Lord."

Enlistees In CAP Here To Begin Instructions

Twenty-four boys and six girls of high school age who have completed their applications for Civil Air Patrol training met recently at the American Legion Home with Paul Howard, local CAP commander to receive their first instructions.

The cadets will meet tonight at 7:30 at the Legion Home for the second instruction session.

Under the guidance of senior members of the Salem CAP Squadron the new cadets will undergo drilling practice, learn airplane rescue and search procedures, and other phases of emergency operations.

Classes will be held each Wednesday night at the American Legion and will be taught by a Senior group member. To date this group includes Commander Paul Howard; executive officer, George Conrad; operations officer, Joe Sox; chaplain, the Rev. Richard Fruit; mechanic instructor, Frank Hill; and drill sergeant, Gene Hanna.

Treasurer to Quit In Face of Shortage

BATAVIA, Ohio (AP)—The Clermont County treasurer says he plans to resign today in the wake of disclosures his accounts are $48,747 short.

John P. Friend, who started in the treasurer's office in 1936 and held the top job for the past 10 years, said Tuesday he knew for 20 years there was a shortage in the office accounts.

"But I kept it to myself," he said, "because I hoped to find out how it happened."

However, state examiners said they detected the shortage after study of tax receipts for collections since August, 1958.

The auditors said taxpayers whose accounts were shown as unpaid produced proof of payment.

County Prosecutor Ralph A. Hill said an investigation is under way.

Friend also said he expects a shortage of about $2,000 to be found in personal and classified tax accounts.

He is active in county Democratic circles, in Boy Scout work and the Methodist Church. He is married and has two sons.

Friend said: "If I had known how the shortage occurred, I would have done something about it."

He said he told no one of the shortages. "If it came out in the open," he said, "I might lose my office and I had three faces to feed."

The county treasurer's pay is $5,400 yearly.

GO TO CHURCH SUNDAY

The local program was planned with the help of Canfield Group 3 Headquarters of CAP. An auxiliary of the air force, reactivated by an act of Congress in 1942, CAP has 52 wings, one for each state and territory. Wing headquarters for Ohio is in Cincinnati. In case of emergencies of any sort, CAP works in close cooperation with Civil Defense units.

Some of the features of the cadet program include arranging for two top students to compete for a foreign exchange program. One student will be sent on a two-week tour overseas, and the other will be chosen to attend a congressional dinner in Washington, D.C.

May Visit Air Base

Cadets will have an opportunity to earn a nine-day visit to Wright Air Force Base in Dayton. The ones selected to go will be flown by jet plane from Youngstown.

Local merchants often help in cadet training programs by providing funds for private pilot instructions, Howard said.

The CAP training program for the girls is identical to that of the boys. Chaperones will be present during drilling and classroom instructions, he said.

Commander Howard said that the local squadron will have a radio transmitter, along with airplane and automobile engines for instruction purposes.

All officers of CAP are volunteers, Mr. Howard explained. In 1958 a total of 13,343 hours was logged by CAP pilots working with the Continental Air Command Headquarters. Mr. Howard pointed out that search and rescue work ran the gamut from finding lost skiers in the California mountains to spotting missing boats in the Florida everglades.

Persons interested in helping with the CAP program may have further information by contacting Mr. Howard at 156 S. Lincoln Ave.

Several Are Injured In Strike Violence

HAZARD, Ky. (AP)—Reinforced state police units patrolled the hills of eastern Kentucky today in the wake of two outbursts of force in coal strikes which have killed more than 7,000 men.

A massive crowd of strikers swarmed over a coal tippie in nearby Letcher County Tuesday injuring at least four men, and state police in Pike County broke up a bumper-riding demonstration.

The strikes, called by the United Mine Workers of America in its demand for a $2 a day basic pay raise to $24.25, began March 9. They have spread as contracts expired.

Safety Commissioner Don Sturgill said extra state police units would work the Pike County area and Maj. Charles Crutchfield, state police director, said extra patrols would be in Letcher County.

Roland P. Price, president of the Gem-Elkhorn Coal Co. at Rockhouse Creek, said he would not resume operations immediately.

Price said nearly 1,500 men swarmed over his tippie, throwing company workers to the ground and stoning them. He said one of his men, George Lowe, suffered a fractured neck and was hospitalized.

Price said another tippie worker, George Sexton, was found in a field, dazed by stones thrown at him.

Price's contract with the UMW had expired.

Crutchfield said troopers estimated at least 200 or 225 cars in a caravan brought demonstrators to the scene.

Columbiana County Still Has 6 Covered Bridges

Quaint Structures Still Remain

By JAMES MURPHY

A covered bridge hidden away on a narrow, tree-lined dirt road, spanning some rocky little stream — a pretty picture that many people may recall.

But just how many of these picturesque wooden bridges remain? That one you fished from years ago probably has disappeared replaced by a more modern span.

The truth is that the antiquated covered bridge is in danger of disappearing completely, but a group of people who are afraid that this bit of Americana may truly become a thing of the past have formed a national society for the preservation of covered bridges.

COLUMBIANA COUNTY has six covered bridges while none of the neighboring counties have any. Fortunately, it seems, there will be several in this area for many years to come.

The most widely known covered bridge near Salem is at Teegarden. This 66-foot span, the longest in the county, is called the Centennial Bridge because it was built in 1876, 100 years after the birth of the United States. The weather beaten structure still bears the sign "plugging" C. R. Phillips, an early Salem druggist.

Three covered bridges may be seen from the Trinity Church Road which leaves Route 30 just east of the West Fork concrete bridge. All three probably were built during the 1870's, but no one knows since the county bridge records do not go that far back.

WHY WERE the bridges covered? "Spooning bridges" and "Shelter for farmers caught in a sudden shower," people say. The real reason is that the covering protected the timber from decay.

A small bridge, much the worse for wear, crosses Elk Run on the Church Hill Road, east of the Lisbon fairgrounds. The 22-foot structure is the smallest in the county. Nearby is historic Thompson Hall, home of the late W. H. Van Fossan.

Legislative Spelling Lesson Wins Veto

BOISE, Idaho (AP) — A legislative spelling lesson failed to win a passing grade Tuesday from Idaho's Republican Gov. Robert E. Smylie.

He vetoed a bill passed by Democratic majorities in both houses of the now-adjourned Legislature. It read:

"The correct name of the Democratic party when not abbreviated is as spelled in this sentence. The spelling 'Democrat' is correct only when used to designate or refer to an individual member of the Democratic party."

Smylie said people should have the right to call a party by any name they prefer. Besides, he added, the bill might abridge the right of free speech.

Phlebitis Can Be Dangerous

I do not know whether the condition known as phlebitis is actually increasing in frequency, but I am getting more and more questions on the subject.

If it is increasing, I cannot help but wonder if the reason may not be due in part to the fact that so many of us sit for long periods of time and do not get the exercise from walking which was so much more common in previous generations.

Be that as it may, the disorders known as phlebitis or thrombophlebitis, are extremely troublesome to physicians as well as to patients. But considerable progress has been made in preventing these conditions and treatment.

PHLEBITIS MEANS inflammation of the lining of a vein. The term thrombophlebitis or phlebotrombosis, is used if clots are present inside the veins at the same time. Thrombophlebitis is probably as common as simple phlebitis.

Either disorder certainly causes a lot of misery. Both can result from varicose veins, from injury, from too much bed rest (particularly in the presence of chronic disease), from certain blood diseases and from a number of other things. Often, however, a definite cause cannot be found at all.

Once phlebitis or thrombophlebitis has developed it should not be neglected. There is hazard of a clot breaking off and going to the lungs, causing what is known as a pulmonary embolism.

When either condition is acute, treatment includes absolute rest in bed, raising of the leg (if it is the leg which is involved) and application of heat.

After the acute inflammation has subsided the most important problem of treatment is to prevent swelling. Elastic bandages are particularly helpful in this kind of thing, but they must be properly applied.

A thorough search for causes of infection is usually made, including examination of the teeth and tonsils. Treatments with small doses of X-ray and the use of one of the sulfonamide drugs or antibiotics may be helpful.

SOME NEW DRUGS have also received favorable reports. Early surgery is strongly favored by some.

Prevention and treatment are being constantly improved. Early rising or mild exercise soon after an operation helps to prevent the blood in the veins from stagnating.

This does not appear to reduce the frequency of thrombophlebitis, but it is believed to lessen the risk of pulmonary embolism. Drugs are also used sometimes to decrease the speed of blood clotting.

In America, All Nerves Are Exposed

As May 27 comes closer, international tension over Russia's threat to use East Germany as it used North Korea, to fight Communism's war against the West, will mount.

All the advantage lies with the Communists in this war of nerves. Not more than a few thousand Russians even know what the Kremlin is doing. There is no speculation about the outcome.

The Kremlin's nerveless masters of an authoritarian state and a tightly restricted Communist conspiracy are pitting their mental discipline against the undisciplined minds of millions living under governments that must be responsive to popular opinion.

President Eisenhower's address Monday was an effort to bring resoluteness to the non-Communist world to match the resoluteness of a handful of men in the Kremlin.

He recognized, as all government leaders elsewhere must recognize, that the Soviet Union has the burglar's advantage. Premier Khrushchev knows what he intends to do, but his intended victims must guess.

He knows what force he would bring to bear; his victims must guess.

They cannot even know what force they could raise to meet his force. At this instant, the United States is deep in debate over the terms of its national security. It is deep in doubt about NATO. It does not know what the United Nations would do. Its militarists, politicians and people are in mental turmoil about the possibility of war.

IN THE UNITED STATES, Britain and France, the three countries most directly involved in the war of nerves that Premier Khrushchev has been waging so adroitly, every nerve is exposed. Discussion and speculation are unlimited. The interplay of pressures is uninhibited. Criticism is unrestrained. Militarists reveal their differences of opinion with other militarists. They and their sponsoring politicians can second-guess and bait the President, as they have been doing the last few days.

There are no certainties, no absolutes, no "sure things." Berlin is militarily indefensible because of its location, yet it must be defended. The Western Allies must not be pushed out of Germany by the Russians, but it would not be the Russians who would do the pushing. It would be East Germans.

The United States as the strongest non-Communist nation must push back with all the strength at its command, but if that would mean all-out nuclear warfare waged against Russian targets there would be some of history's gravest misgivings. Yet, on the other hand, the United States does not intend to go through another Korean meat-grinder, sacrificing thousands of its best men and billions of its wealth to the savagery of an enemy that cannot be identified positively — not even legally — as its real enemy.

ALL THIS IS known to the Kremlin and to the Communist conspirators. They are counting on it to shatter the composure of their intended victims.

They are gambling on the probability, as they see it, that free men will go to pieces under the impact of their own doubts and misgivings.

Hitler, Mussolini and Tojo made the same gamble in their time, and what happened to them is the only assurance there is that Khrushchev and his men will prefer to negotiate.

Union Reform Proposed In New York

There is striking similarity in a union-reform proposal made for New York state by Gov. Rockefeller and Gov. DiSalle's proposal for Ohio.

In both cases, first-term governors have declared it is their intention to differentiate between good unionists, who would have nothing to fear from a reform law, and bad ones, who could be put to rout by enforcement of the laws they propose.

In both cases, it is pointed out that responsible unionists need strong legal support for their own efforts to free themselves of the leeches that have attached themselves to the union movement.

And in both cases it is made clear that unions have attained such importance in the organization of society that they must be controlled as closely as employers. In New York, the Rockefeller proposal goes beyond the DiSalle proposal in Ohio by including new procedures for employer organizations as well as for unions. But the intent in both proposals is to regularize labor-management relations by public authority in such a manner as to bar coercion, bribe-paying and bribe-receiving by either side.

Though the DiSalle appears to have more punch in it, as far as dealing harshly with unionism's bad eggs, the Rockefeller bill has more impact because it hits at corruption in the vast New York City area.

Both proposals raise the question whether labor unions finally have reached a stage of development that makes it possible for their leaders to accept public help in solving their problems. In the past, the leaders have taken the attitude that all outside interest in their affairs was unfriendly—part of a hostile plot to injure them. Until they have learned to identify their interest with public interests, unions cannot be secure.

Ohio and New York are giving them a chance to admit they owe responsibility for the privileges they demand.

Ohio's Truck-Tax Problem Not Solved

An attempt in the Ohio General Assembly to get rid of the state's controversial weight-distance tax on trucks has been blunted by Gov. DiSalle's warning that no change should be made without thorough study.

It is not true, as opponents of the weight-distance tax say it is, that the tax has been a failure. It has produced revenue at a rate of about 20 million dollars a year, less than the highest expectations but considerably more than the lowest expectations.

Because the revenue it produces is pledged to the retirement of Ohio highway bonds, nothing must jeopardize this source of income. If there is to be a revision of law concerning the money truckers must pay for the commercial use of Ohio highways, it must not be at the expense of state income.

The issue raised in the General Assembly by HB 757 is whether truckers should pay solely according to a weight formula, or whether they should pay also according to mileage traveled. The existing formula is by both weight and distance. The proposed formula would be by weight alone.

Six years ago when the weight-distance proposal was the hottest issue in the 100th General Assembly, it was our belief that the trucking industry should be made to bear costs commensurate with the heavy costs of the public roads that made the industry possible. Because the industry was in interstate commerce, it seemed reasonable to let Ohio collect taxes from out-of-state units as well as intrastate units.

Once Over

Joseph N. Welch hasn't reported on the movie lot yet, but if we were Jimmy Stewart who stars in the picture with him, we wouldn't show up.

The Boston attorney who won fame in McCarthy hearings is no amateur night performer. The guy clicks. He is best remembered of all McCarthy probe performers, and has vowed the audience on TV productions without half trying.

Joseph admits there is "a slice of ham in me and in all lawyers." In this Bay State attorney's case it is not a thick slice, but it is high-grade, neatly packaged and all the more dangerous to actors on the same program.

Jimmy Stewart is in for competition. Although Mr. Welch is cast in a relatively small part as a judge in "Anatomy of Murder," he may ride into court on a cow pony and wear a sombrero. He has a New England accent as distinct as Jimmy's drawl. We last saw Stewart in a stirring "Western" in which a lot of buddies had to be mopped up. While he did a good job we think Joe Welch would have had less trouble even taking time out to go to his Boston suburb home at night, as he did often at the McCarthy hearings.

Lana Turner, originally cast for picture, was reported withdrawing. She may have thought Mr. Welch tough competition, even if he is no eye-fel in a sweater.

He never seems to be chewing up scenery, hammering it up or working hard to eclipse anybody. But after the show you go home saying, "That fellow Welch is a wonder. Didn't we see him years ago in 'The Old Homestead'?" Watch out, Jimmy! This can be the show-down.

A NEW YORK COURT has held unconstitutional a law making it illegal to leave a key in an auto. It held that if a man wants to be that crazy, it's his own business.

U. S. Rocket "Pioneer IV" went silent 400,000 miles from the earth. Last words were probably "Boy, am I glad to get away from all those tensions down there!"

At the Leipzig Fair Khrushchev took samples of a liver pill. He feels so low at times that he can't murder world peace.

More Letters to Washington

By Dr. GEORGE S. BENSON
Director of the National Education Program

John Jones works in an industry. He operates one of the small but amazingly productive machines in a plant that turns out a widely used electrical appliance.

He is on an hourly wage rate. But the pay is good and his income is a little above the average for skilled workers in American industry. His monthly income is more than $450, his annual income above $5,000.

John made out his federal income tax return two weeks ago, and he did some thinking and figuring. And then, for the first time in his life, he wrote a letter to his Congressman.

John, on his tax return, attached a slip that showed he had already paid more than a month's income in withheld income taxes; and yet he owed an additional sum for which he had to send Uncle Sam a check. He noted, too, the amount of taxes he'd paid through the year on purchases of merchandise. And he set about figuring how much indirect, or hidden taxes he'd paid during the year.

When he totaled the whole thing up and then added his state and local taxes, John had a better understanding of why he didn't have a bank balance and was "just barely making ends meet."

HE WROTE HIS Congressman and his two Senators. "I'm just a little guy," he told them, "and I know the government performs some mighty valuable services for me and my family. But I've been doing some figuring and thinking a lot."

In spite of the services, government has become a heavy burden on me. It's costing too much. Even in defense spending I suspect a lot could be saved. And since we're in a cold war we ought to be cutting expenses and not increasing them in all the other services. Please use your influence to cut government spending everywhere."

This is one of the most effective letters that could be written to Congress. It is sincere and moderate. If just half of the workers in American industry would take careful stock of how much tax they are paying and do what John has done, the pruning knife would begin to work in Washington.

IN WASHINGTON recently I visited with two members of Congress who are very influential in Congressional activities. We talked about the budget, the national debt and the deficit. Both men are sensitive to the wishes of their people back home.

One showed me his day's mail. It contained several letters from people who were obviously banded together in an association to push for a Congressional appropriation for a particular project in their area. There was only one letter from a citizen asking that federal spending be cut back.

"We know that most of our people back home want to see government spending cut back," this Congressman said. "But we don't hear from many of them. We hear from the ones who have some personal interest in some project that requires federal spending."

The thrift-minded people, the thousands who are aware that constantly increasing government spending has become a real burden, eating away at a man's earnings, simply do not write letters—at least not many of them write to me. It is human nature for us to forget their situation and to be impressed by those who are constantly camping on our doorstep asking for some costly spending project."

It is no exaggeration to say that the average American family could own and operate an automobile or send a child through college, with the amount of money that could be cut from their tax bill if every possible measure of thrift were applied in government and if, for the duration of the cold war at least, plans for new projects and all unnecessary spending were set aside.

ON MY DESK is a report from a House of Representative subcommittee which made an ever-brief study of some phases of our foreign economic aid program.

They turned up hundreds of items of stupid waste. Just one of these concerned a sawmill shipped to Iran three years ago by the benevolent custodians of our hard earned money siphoned off to Washington in taxes.

The sawmill cost us $500,000. The Iranians found it to be useless — it couldn't handle the heavy teakwood logs of the region. It hadn't even been uncrated; just allowed to sit on the hillside and rust away.

Let's more of us follow John's example and write our Congressmen. It could turn the tide, give us more money for our own family needs, halt the dangerous growth of powerful government, and preserve national strength.

'To Keep Out of War'

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Cutting Foreign Aid Funds Invites Peril

If the American people could express in a single sentence their most important wish today, it would be: "Keep us out of war at any cost."

Yet, when out of a national budget of 77 billion dollars, the President as for $3,930,000,000 to keep American boys from fighting abroad and calls for a "Mutual Security Program" to bolster our allies, this is derided as a "foreign aid" program or a "give-away."

The label is wrong. It's really a "keep-us-out-of-war" program.

Few of the critics realize the explosive situation that exists in the world today or how interrelated America's fate is with the other free countries — or, if they do realize it, they fail to see how many billions more our defenses would cost if America had to do the job alone. That's why President Eisenhower's television address Monday night was so important to the country.

For the President had no sooner announced last week that he was asking Congress for $3,930,000,000 when from Capitol Hill — mostly from Democrats — came predictions that the expenditure would be cut by a billion. Acting Secretary of State Herter promptly said that if any such reduction were made it would "serve notice on the world that we are weakening in our determination."

JUST WHY some of the legislators regard any money spent abroad as either a gift or a throw-away is hard to understand unless they think the American people really can be misled by such distortions.

Certainly, as sometimes charged, there's waste in the spending of American funds in other countries because the United States cannot always control how other governments disburse the money they receive. But, conceding that there is some waste, it is a fact that in war itself there is even greater waste.

The true test is whether, on the whole, war is prevented and thus far the United States has managed with the help of strong allies to keep us out of a third world war.

It sometimes isn't realized how much America's own allies have been spending since the close of World War II. Rather the impression is fostered by the critics that the United States is putting up all the money for international defense or mutual security.

The President in his message to Congress a few days ago said:

"Over the years of our combined effort, these allies and friends have spent on these forces some 141 billion dollars, more than six times the 22 billion we have contributed in military assistance. During calendar year 1958 they contributed 19 billion of their own funds to the support of these forces. . . .

"Without the strength of our allies our nation would be turned into an armed camp and our people subjected to a heavy draft and an annual cost of many billions of dollars above our present military budget."

WHAT PERHAPS isn't generally understood in America is that economic assistance plays a vital role in maintaining the stability of other nations. If there were no stable governments among our allies America would not have strategic bases overseas.

The President said on this point: "Through the Mutual Security Program our friends among the free world nations make available to us for the use of our forces some 250 bases in the most strategic locations, many of them of vital importance. They support ground forces totaling more than five million men stationed at points where danger of local aggression is most acute, based on their own soil and prepared to defend their own homes."

"They maintain air forces of about 30,000 aircraft of which nearly 14,000 are jets. 23 times the jet strength of 1950 when the program started. They also have naval forces totaling 2,500 combat vessels with some 1,700 in active fleets or their supporting activities."

DISSENTING MEMBERS of Congress often concede that the military program is logical but they claim the economic support abroad is questionable and this they would cut.

In doing so they would strike a blow at the morale of the countries affected. For without economic stability, political chaos ensues and then the Communists find fertile ground for exploitation or even overthrow of existing governments.

The Communist intrusion in Iraq lately, for example, has unsettled the entire Middle East.

The Communist tactics in Africa, Asia and Latin America have been supported by Soviet measures in the economic field.

So it's a dangerous international situation which calls for American expenditures to bolster here and abroad our defenses — politically, economically and militarily. From a strong alliance, moreover, comes firmness in a crisis as is the case today when Moscow is testing the West.

The President says the West will not surrender. He can say this convincingly because the Western Alliance in the last 10 years has been built on a strong foundation. It is to maintain that strength that the "Mutual Security Program," or what might better be called a "keep-us-out-of-war" program, is really directed.

Age of Anxiety

By TRUMAN TWILL

Psychologists at Columbia University have learned that a monkey and a pigeon trained to go through certain mechanical moves to get a squirt of orange juice and a grain of corn fuzz off if given tranquilizers. They can't cut the mustard, as we say at the office.

But it doesn't bother them, because they are tranquilized.

This is the story of the Age of Anxiety.

All of us monkeys and pigeons are being given a choice between being anxious and being tranquil.

The catch is that we achieve tranquility at the price performance. We are like the alcoholic lunk who gets a glow on at the expense of his mental sharpness and physical coordination.

The lunk ends up by being at peace with the world. He is happy as a clam at high tide. Yet, it never has occurred to anyone to think of a clam at high tide as the most admirable of living things.

It is impossible any more to go through a week with one's eyes and ears open without running across the statement, "This is an age of anxiety."

Anxiety has become the badge of distinction that men wear in the mid-20th century to mark them from men in other centuries. Even school children these days are supposed to be anxious. Parents insist that their offspring are "nervous," with more than a fair share of mental problems, if they wander off the beam.

Teen-agers are said to have special problems. Young adults are supposed to be under the guns in a special kind of combat with the world.

The middle-aged, of course, are living in a tizzy of frustration as they try to keep their health and

Girl, Injured In Car Mishap In 1954, 'Grew Up' Again After Brain Surgery

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Four years ago, Shirley Ferrell couldn't walk or talk. Next Sunday she will become old enough to vote.

A pretty brunette with a quick smile, Shirley is a girl with two lives. One life was snuffed out Nov. 23, 1954, when, as a 16-year-old Marion-Franklin High School sophomore, she suffered head injuries in a school bus crash.

The other began when she awoke in Children's Hospital, after five brain operations and eight weeks in a coma, unable to remember the accident, or even her name.

E. State ED 2-3461

Transformed Into Invalid
Shirley made headlines when Ohio State Journal stories told of the crash, which in a few seconds transformed a healthy, bustling straight "A" student into a child-like invalid whose mind was a blank.

Touched by her plight, friends, neighbors, corporations and total strangers gave the Elmer Ferrell family $5,400, and friends pitched in to help build them a new home.

This week, as Shirley thumbed through newspaper clippings about the bus accident, and chatted about her schooling, she demonstrated to newsmen the progress she has made.

Home from the hospital on Jan. 29, 1955, Shirley was like a person born again. She had to be dressed. And fed like a baby. And like a child, she used to put pencils, bobby pins, and all loose objects in her mouth. She also squirted toothpaste on her hair.

Bit Lipstick In Two
"Once," her mother, Maye remarked, "we gave her some lipstick to see if she would remember. She bit it in two."

Her parents, and twin sister, Betty, took turns teaching her to walk. Slowly, she also learned to talk.

"She learned to count first," her mother continued, "and not being able to remember names, she called everyone by numbers."

Shirley would summon her mother by calling "hey three," and refer to her father as No. 10.

She had to be reintroduced to everyone, and would only learn people's identities after being told their names time after time.

"We were afraid that she would not be able to learn," her mother said.

The fears have been allayed by Miss Ruth E. Woods, a Columbus public school teacher, who has conducted twice-a-week classes at Shirley's home since September 1956.

"When I started," Miss Woods declared, "Shirley didn't know she lived in Ohio or she didn't know that a carrot was a vegetable."

Advanced To 6th Grade
After only 2½ years, however, Shirley has advanced to sixth grade subjects. Her handwriting is excellent, and her typing is quite good "I feel that her knowledge is really there. It just has to be recalled," the teacher said.

Although the effects of the accident would go unnoticed by a stranger, her parents pointed out that Shirley is still somewhat different than a sixth-grader, or a 21-year-old.

She is confused by directions, they said, and for that reason never ventures away from home alone. She forgets names of visitors, and is not interested in boys. She is more friendly now, her mother said, than before the accident.

Has Sense of Humor

Evidence of her recovery, however, is furnished in Shirley's own sense of humor. When her mother explained her old fears about Shirley being unable to do anything, she quipped: "You can help with the dishes anytime." And when she was asked about her schooling, she joked that she will "finish high school when I'm 26, and I'm an old maid."

Noteworthy, too, is the fact that she was bridesmaid for her sister, Betty, who was married to Michael Obert, 21, last Nov. 8 at St. Ladislaus Church. She remembered her instructions at the rehearsal, and went through the ceremony without making a miscue.

It was a solid achievement for a girl who has had moments of regret about having to go through school twice.

"If I could have one wish come true," she once told her teacher, "I would wish for my memory back."

WHOSE IDEA WAS IT? — Spotting her fashion double supposedly throws milady into a decline cured only by a new and different ensemble. These sisters, however, aren't chagrined at the similarity in their dress. Queen Elizabeth and Princess Margaret, right, arrive at a charity film performance in London, each wearing a black velvet dress and fur stole.

Hays Threatens to Tell U.S. Aid Amounts

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Wayne L. Hays (D-Ohio) threatened today to tell the world just how much foreign aid the United States is giving each country.

Hays said he would reveal country by country what the United States "is proposing to give to these dictators and others."

Hays first threatened to expose the amounts during a row with Chairman Thomas E. Morgan (D-Pa.) of the House Foreign Affairs Committee over closing the doors on committee questioning of Undersecretary of State C. Douglas Dillon.

The breakdown by nations, especially in military aid, has always been a closely guarded secret.

Dillon appeared before the committee to testify in support of the administration's $3,930,000,000 foreign aid program for the year beginning July 1. That program includes $1,600,000,000 for arms.

Haupt, Bandy Vows Heard At Beloit

Miss Patricia Haupt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Haupt of Beloit, and Richard Bandy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bandy of Homeworth, exchanged their marriage vows March 11 in a single ring ceremony solemnized in the bride's home.

The Rev. C. T. Mangrum of the Beloit Friends Church officiated at the service.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a white nylon and wool sheath with black and white accessories. She carried a colonial bouquet of variegated pink and white carnations.

Mrs. Betty Simpson of Sebring was matron of honor for her sister. The best man was Thomas Smith of Sebring.

Mrs. Haupt chose a light blue lace dress with beige accessories, while Mrs. Bandy wore a dark blue dress with matching accessories. Both wore white carnation corsages.

A reception followed the ceremony after which the couple left for Campbellsville, Ky., where Mr. Bandy is employed. Mrs. Bandy is a graduate of Sebring McKinley High School.

Book Club Names Officers; Mrs. Hollinger Is President

Mrs. J. S. Hollinger was elected president of the Salem Book Club at Monday afternoon's meeting in the Ruth Smucker House.

Other newly-elected officers are: First vice president, Mrs. Robert Davis; second vice president, Mrs. Matt Melitschka; secretary, Mrs. Z. R. Taylor; treasurer, Mrs. Frank Stoerker; assistant secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Robert Dunn; nonofficial, Mrs. Robert Talbot; and delegate to the Salem Federation of Women's Clubs, Mrs. Charles Wernet.

Serving on the nominating committee were Mrs. R. H. Sponseller, Mrs. John England and Miss Mary Herbert.

Plans were completed for the Ohio Federation of Women's Clubs

Legislative Day observance here March 24 at the First Methodist Church. Book Club, the only local club belonging to the state federation, will be hostess club.

This program, which will feature a panel discussion, style show, display of items made by the blind and the appearance of the state federation president, Mrs. Carl A. Weinman of Steubenville, is open to all Book Club members and any other interested women in the community.

Those who want to attend the luncheon at noon may make reservations until Friday with Mrs. Z. R. Taylor at ED 2-4453.

About 250 women from out of town are expected to be present. Mrs. Taylor will be in charge of registrations from 8:30 to 9:30 a.m. in the church. After the women register and pick up their luncheon tickets, they are invited to go to the Ruth Smucker House for a coffee hour. Mrs. Robert Enright and her hospitality committee will be in charge.

The business session, opened by members repeating the Lord's Prayer, was conducted by Mrs. Talbot. Miss Hazel Douglas was welcomed as a guest.

Mrs. England, who gave the federation report told about the prizes and schedules for the antique show to be sponsored by the federation May 22, 23 and 24 in the Memorial Building.

In keeping with the program theme, "Faiths Men Live By," Mrs. R. R. Woods reviewed the book, "Yankees in Paradise," written by Bradford Smith, relating a story of missionaries from New England who settled in the Hawaiian Islands in 1820.

Mrs. Talbot led group singing of hymns with Mrs. Harry Snyder playing piano accompaniment.

Book critic, Mrs. E. S. Vincent suggested a list of books to read including the American Garden Book, which she said would be of special interest to spring gardeners.

"Books — Keys to Adventure," is the theme for the April 6 meeting in the Smucker House, when Mrs. J. R. Stiver will review Lorna Shaw's book, "As Far As You'll Take Me."

WANTS TO CHANGE NAME
CHESHIRE, Conn. (AP) — Roger Enidras wants to change his name again.

Enidras, a chef at a prep school here, was born Roger Sardine in Diette, France. He became a U.S. citizen in 1938. Since sardine is a word often taken lightly here, Roger turned it around and named himself Enidras.

Now he's planning a trip back to France. He asked a judge to allow him to reverse his name to Sardine, so the home folks will remember him.

Most folks here call him Roger Sardine anyway.

JUST ONE LEFT — The death of Confederate Army veteran John Salling, 112, right, leaves just one Civil War survivor. ## No Nagging Backache Means a Good Night's Sleep

Nagging backache, headache, or muscular aches and pains may come on with over-exertion, emotional upsets or day to day stress and strain. And folks who eat and drink unwisely sometimes suffer mild bladder irritation... with that restless, uncomfortable feeling. If you are miserable and worn out because of these discomforts, Doan's Pills often help by their pain relieving action, by their soothing effect to ease bladder irritation, and by their mild diuretic action through the kidneys—tending to increase the output of the 15 miles of kidney tubes. So if nagging backache makes you feel dragged-out, miserable, with restless, sleepless nights, don't wait, try Doan's Pills, get the same happy relief millions have enjoyed for over 60 years. Ask for new, large, economy size and save money. Get Doan's Pills today!

CLEVELAND (AP)—A 68-year-old man who suffered head injuries when he slipped on some ice near his home died Tuesday night in Huron Road Hospital. The victim, Fred W. Mayer, Cleveland, was injured Thursday.

Man, Boy 'Fairly Good' Following Accidents

Two area residents are reported in fairly good condition at the Central Clinic following accidents on Tuesday.

James Stittle, 18-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Stittle of RD 1, Salem, suffered multiple body abrasions when he fell from his parents' car in the driveway of his home.

James Jenkins, 31, of Kensington sustained burns of the right hand while thawing out water pipes at his home.

County Board Will Act on Transfer

LISBON—The Columbiana County Board of Education will hold a special meeting Tuesday, April 7, to transact final business pertaining to the transfer of the Hillcrest territory to the Wellsville school district last month.

The special session was set at the board's meeting Tuesday night in the county school offices in the Courthouse.

The real estate valuation of the territory has been set at $394,390; personal property and public figures still must be obtained.

A letter was read from R. S. Rolly, clerk of the Wellsville School Board, accepting the Hillcrest territory into the Wellsville system. The transfer was ordered by the State Board of Education.

A pollio survey of the first grades in the county school system show that of the 562 pupils, only 309 (54 per cent) have had polio shots, it was reported.

The county board will ask local boards to begin a campaign to insure that all the pupils receive their shots before the polio season.

Supt. James L. McBride reported that plans are being advanced for slow learners classes. Beaver Local is expected to have two rooms and Fairfield-Waterford one for the next school term.

An annual meeting was scheduled for all local boards of education in the county system and the county board in the near future.

The board voted to purchase a photo copying machine for $275 and an electrotype paper gogger (paper straightening machine) for $99.

U.S. Scientists Set to Launch 3-In-1 Satellite

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States is planning something new in satellites—a three-in-one job. It will be part of the Vanguard series and will include a balloon to study friction in space.

Dr. John P. Hagen announced plans for it Tuesday and said it will be launched soon from Cape Canaveral, Fla.

In effect, Hagen said, the new Vanguard will provide three separate satellites:

1. The empty case of the launching vehicle's third-stage rocket, a metal tube weighing about 52 pounds.

2. A 13-inch plastic sphere with an arm extending about two feet. There will be a magnetometer at the end of the arm to measure the earth's magnetic fields. This satellite will weigh about 22 pounds.

3. A 30-inch expandable balloon weighing 1 1/2 to 2 pounds.

Before launching, the balloon will be folded into a small tray at the base of the plastic sphere. When the nose of the launching vehicle separates from the final stage rocket, a gas cartridge will inflate the balloon—if all goes as planned.

The balloon, because of its larger area and lighter weight, will slow down more rapidly than the two companion satellites and thus provide a more precise measurement of drag and friction in space.

3 Motorists Pay $185 In Fines Here

Three persons were fined a total of $185 and costs and sentenced to three days in jail while a third person forfeited $64 in bonds in Mayor Harold Smith's court today.

Fined were: Robert S. Blackburn of Columbiana, driving while intoxicated, $150 and three days in jail; George R. Wrinkman, 20, of Jewett, truck overload, $25; and Lloyd C. Sell, 33, of 909 Summit St., reckless operation, $10.

Elton E. Geary, 40, of RD 3, Salem, left bonds of $54 for overload and $10 for dumping the overload in an alley when he failed to appear for a hearing.

Leetonia Woman New Home Economics Agent

Mrs. Beulah Converse of RD 2, Leetonia has been named home economics agent for the Mahoning County Extension office, according to Wade Wehr, chairman of the Mahoning County extension advisory committee. She will serve in this capacity until June 30.

Mrs. Converse has been a 4-H advisor in Columbiana County and has served as summer 4-H assistant in Columbiana and Holmes Counties.

In Mahoning County, she will work with the Home Demonstration Council in the further development of an adult home economics program. She will also work with Richard Schaffner, associate county extension agent, and the 4-H council in the Mahoning County 4-H youth program.

TWO JUVENILES ESCAPE

ASHLAND, Ohio (AP)—Two Mansfield juveniles used spoons and a piece of pipe from a cell cot to carve a 30-inch hole in the wall in escaping from the Ashland County jail Tuesday. They slipped down to freedom on an improvised rope of sheets and blankets. One was turned in a few hours later by his parents. The other was still free today. It was the second escape from the jail in nine days.

Old-Time Train Robber Dead at 77

DENVER, Colo. (AP)—Bill LaTrasse, 77, one of the last of the old-time train robbers, is dead.

After spending more than half his life in prison, LaTrasse died a free man.

Released from the Kansas Penitentiary last Dec. 30, LaTrasse came to Denver to live with a sister, Mrs. Edna Shelton. Ten days ago he entered a hospital. A kidney ailment took his life.

LaTrasse made his reputation on Christmas night, 1910, when he held up a Missouri Pacific train between Kansas City and Leavenworth, Kan. He pushed a frightened porter ahead of him through the cars and robbed the passengers of $2,000.

Captured and sent to the Kansas prison, he escaped in 1915. Then followed a Chicago robbery, a battlefield wound in World War I, another arrest and the completion of his prison term.

LaTrasse made an effort to go straight and opened a shoe repair business in Kansas City. But the experiment ended with a holdup of a gambling game and he went to the Missouri prison. Released, he went back to the Kansas prison after two men were shot in a hold-up of a dice game at Parsons, Kan., in 1942. This time it was for life.

LaTrasse escaped again, but he soon was caught, a sick and broken old man.

Congress

knowledge that "America as a whole, represented in Congress, looked with sympathy on Ireland's struggle for freedom."

O'Kelly said Ireland still faces "the great and challenging problem of partition," with six Northern counties loyal to Britain.

His appearance before Congress carried forward a round of activities which started with his St. Patrick's Day arrival.

He beamed his way, through a busy day. It included a waltz, through a busy day. It included a waltz, through a busy day. It included a waltz, through a busy day.

O'Kelly and his wife will leave Washington Thursday afternoon for New York City, New England, the Midwest and East before returning to Ireland March 31.

Council

Council passed an ordinance appropriating $917.50 from the general fund to the repair fund to pay for new glass doors at the City Hall.

Council instructed Harry Vincent, city service director to contact the Pennsylvania Railroad and report back at the next Council meeting on what steps the Railroad is going to take for the permanent repair of grade crossings in the city.

Council President Curtis Vaughan also stated that he feels something must be done about trains blocking crossings in the city.

He stated that firemen were recently held up enroute to a fire on the west side of the city.

Kenneth G. Curry, a trucker from Wellsville, appeared at Council to voice a complaint about the speed with which the city ashes its streets during heavy snowstorms.

Donald Cannon stated that he feels the city should take action to end Daylight Savings time in September each year instead of October.

Aubrey Hayes, superintendent of utilities, reported that the utilities commission will open bids on the sewer bucket machine April 25.

Harry Vincent, service director, reported that his department has advertised for bids on the new street sweeper and the new grader. Bids will be opened April 30.

Man Held for Forgery Secures Attorney

LISBON — Emerson Braun, 27, of Salem appeared in Common Pleas Court today and informed Judge Joel H. Sharp he had secured Atty. Ray Roach of Cleveland to represent him in his forgery case.

Judge Sharp told Braun Tuesday afternoon that if he didn't secure an attorney by this morning, the court would appoint one.

The judge set the trial for Monday at 9:30 a.m. and instructed Braun to have his attorney contact the prosecuting attorney and assign a commissioner today.

Authorities claim Braun was unable to make a performance bond for the Washingtonville sewer project which he had contracted and that he forged a bond to secure the job.

ST PAUL SPEAKER

The Rev. Fr. Anthony McCabe O.P. will speak on "The Three Sinners on Calvary" at the Lenten devotions tonight at 7:30 at St. Paul Catholic Church.

LEAVES BOND IN LISBON

LISBON — Anthony J. Hoodski, 41, of East Liverpool forfeited a $15 bond in Mayor John Todd's court when he failed to appear for a hearing on a charge of permitting an unlicensed driver to operate his car. He was cited by the State Highway Patrol.

Hawaii Bill Is Signed by Eisenhower

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower today signed the bill to make Hawaii the 50th state.

With the bill's signing, Hawaii could, by taking fast action, get officially into the Union by next July. This would be in time to send members to the present session of Congress. October is more likely, however. It took six months to add Alaska's 49th star to the flag.

Territorial Gov. William Quinn has 30 days after formal notification of the President's approval in which to issue a proclamation of elections.

A primary must be held no less than 60 nor more than 90 days after the proclamation. General election must come no later than 40 days after the primary.

Eisenhower's proclamation making Hawaii the 50th state will come after the election results are officially certified. There is no fixed time limit on the presidential action.

Final congressional action on the admission of Hawaii came March 12 in a 323-89 House vote. The Senate voted 76-15 a day earlier.

Eisenhower got the bill March 13 but used only four of the 10 days he had for signing or vetoing. Sunday's don't count.

Treaty

more urgent problems are those involved in reunifying Germany.

But U.S. officials emphasize that the Soviet government obviously intends to raise the question of a peace treaty at a foreign ministers meeting, and they want the Western powers to be ready to meet it in some way. It is felt here that when the occasion arises the Allies should be ready to tell the Soviets and the world the kind of peace which they would make with an all-German government.

Reunification First Step

Present Western planning is based on the idea that the essential first step in solving the problems of Germany is some move toward reunifying the divided country and creating an all-German government.

To this end Western policy planners now meeting in Paris are talking about proposing to the Soviets the creation of a federation to bring East and West Germany under a single political roof.

Over a period of several years the powers of the central federal government would gradually be increased and the powers of the present East and West German regimes would correspondingly decrease.

The highly tentative U.S. draft is understood to be based on the principle that when a peace treaty finally is signed, Germany should be given full control over its own affairs and should be free to choose its own course in international relations.

House

judiciary committee. Co-sponsored by Rep. A. G. Lancione, (D-Belmont) it would allow juries to divide the blame between both parties to the suit.

Present law is based on the theory that if the person who brings the suit is negligent in any degree, he cannot collect damages from the defendant. In practice, juries often modify this rule.

The Lancione message would let juries determine the total amount of damages due and what percentage of them should be charged to the plaintiff and the defendant.

Committee Approval

The committee action Tuesday included: Approval by the house health committee of a bill to increase medical expense fees from $25 to $50 for newly licensed doctors and from $50 to $100 for doctors licensed in other states who come to Ohio to practice.

Approval by the house judiciary committee of a bill sponsored by Rep. Joseph E. Lady (R-Hardin) to prohibit profane language and molesting on telephone.

The bill would require telephone companies to print reminders of the law in their directories as a deterrent to violating and would help law enforcement officials in prosecuting violators.

Scheduled hearings on a number of other bills were cancelled for lack of time after a long Democratic caucus. Among them were measures on township boundaries and annexation procedures sponsored by Rep. Bernice K. Mackenzie (D-Stark).

Mother, 3 Children Are Killed In Fire

LEBANON, Pa. (AP)—A mother and three children of a family formerly from Bowling Green, Ohio, burned to death Tuesday in their apartment here. Dead are Mrs. Jennette L. Hedges, 30, and her children, William, 6, Michael, 3, and Dawn 3 months. Mrs. Hedges' husband William, 27, a native of Toledo, Ohio, was en route to work when the tragedy occurred. A stepson Donald Shiner, 9, had left for school before the fire broke out.

Deaths, Funerals

Mrs. Jake Athey

ROGERS — Mrs. Elizabeth Athey, 80, of RD Rogers, died Tuesday evening at the County Home at Lisbon after a lingering illness. Born Aug. 1, 1878 in Meigs County, O., she was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ichabod White.

In 1895 she married William Caplinger who died in 1938. Later she married Jake Athey who died in 1958.

She was of the Methodist faith. Survivors include one daughter, Mrs. Margaret Schultz Johnson of Rogers; two sons, Ira Caplinger and John Caplinger of East Liverpool; six grandchildren; and eight great-grandchildren.

Funeral service will be Friday at 1:30 p.m. at the Warrick Funeral Home L. Columbiana.

Burial will be in Calcutta Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home Thursday evening.

Mrs. William Filer

NEW WATERFORD — Mrs. Kathryn C. Filer, 83, of Silliman St., died at 2:10 a.m. today at Salem City Hospital. She had been a patient for four weeks, suffering from a fractured hip.

Born May 4, 1875 at North Liberty, Pa., she was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William G. Coulter. In 1900 she married William G. Filer, who survives.

A resident here since 1901, she was a member of the Presbyterian Church and the Macabee Lodge.

Besides her husband, she leaves two sisters, Mrs. Lillian Yarian of New Waterford and Mrs. Lou Young of Crafton, Pa.; a brother, Charles Coulter of Sebring; and several nieces and nephews.

Services will be Saturday at 1:30 p.m. at the Warrick Funeral Home in Columbiana. The Rev. Larry Hartfelder of the Presbyterian Church will officiate, with burial in Woodland Cemetery in Grove City, Pa.

Friends may call at the funeral home Friday evening.

Albert Millheiser

COLUMBIANA — Albert Millheiser, 82, of 301 Union St. died of complications at 4:10 a.m. today at Salem City Hospital following a two-week illness.

Born in Pittsburgh, Aug. 30, 1876, he had resided at the John Miller home for the past 45 years. A member of the Eagles Lodge, he was employed by the Columbiana Pump Co. for 45 years, retiring in 1948.

Services will be Friday at 1:30 p.m. at the Seedyer-Belhart Funeral Home, with the Rev. Donald Voelm of the Grace United Church of Christ officiating. Burial will be in Columbiana Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home Thursday evening.

Fans

There will be a "send-off" pep assembly for the basketball team at 8:55 a.m. Thursday. The squad will leave in cars at 9:15 a.m. on Thursday. They will stay in the Hotel Seneca in Columbus. They will have one practice session on Thursday from 4 to 5:30 p.m. in the physical education building on the Ohio State University campus.

R. M. Falk of Uniontown, a former Salem resident, offered today to fly three people to the game in exchange for a ticket. The state tournament duets are that scarce.

Youngstown Pilot Chutes to Safety

MANSFIELD, Ohio (AP)—Second Lt. Harold Allen took off in his jet fighter Tuesday to help another aircraft in distress. Allen's plane crashed. The other got down safely.

Allen, 24, of Youngstown, parachuted to safety. His F84F Thunderstreak flamed out at 26,000 feet and crashed on open farm land about six miles southwest of Mansfield Municipal Airport. Allen came down uninjured on another farm about a half-mile away.

His thunderstreak was attached to the 164th Tactical Fighter Squadron, Ohio Air National Guard, based at the Mansfield airport.

Allen was sent up to guide in a T33 jet trainer whose airspeed indicator wasn't functioning. The plane managed to land safely at the airport.

Jobless Claims Continue to Decline

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Continued decline in the total of continuing claims was noted today in the weekly report of the Ohio Bureau of Unemployment Compensation.

The total for the week ended March 14 was 94,426, compared with the 98,985 the previous week, and was the lowest since last December.

New claims filed in the week ended March 14 totaled 11,069, compared with the 11,391 the previous week.

Continued drop also was noted in continuing claims for the 13 weeks of extended benefits available after regular benefits are exhausted. The total for the week ended March 14 was 21,324 compared with 22,198 the previous week. New claims in this category totaled 1,776 for the week compared with 1,871 for the week ended March 7.

Macmillan

Khrushchev, French President Charles de Gaulle and West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer. His aim is to work out a unified strategy and proposals with which to approach the Soviets at the foreign ministers meeting.

Macmillan was reported cheered by three points brought up in Eisenhower's broadcast:

1. American readiness to take part in a summit parley if such a meeting is justified. On the basis of his findings in Moscow, Paris and Bonn, Macmillan seems pretty sure developments will justify such a conference.
2. U.S. willingness to "listen to new ideas" and "to present others."
3. U.S. resolve to distinguish between negotiations and appeasement.

or semi-public buildings, so that the machines will not have to be moved in and out of polling places with each election, he said.

O'Hanlon emphasized that the Election Board has not made any recommendation to purchase the voting machines. The sole action was to recommend to the county commissioners that the devices be given a trial on a rental basis in the two communities, he explained. There is no interest charge in connection with the rental of $91 per machine for each election, he added.

If the county decides to purchase the machines after the trial, the rental will apply toward the purchase, he said.

Career Day Is Held At Palestine School

EAST PALESTINE — The annual Career Day Program was held in the senior high school here today as students met with 65 different counselors on possible future professions. The day started with an assembly at 9 a.m.

The program will last all day and is sponsored by the Kiwanis Club.

Rotary Club Hears Program by Students

A Salem High School musical ensemble presented the program at the Rotary Club meeting Tuesday at the Memorial Building.

Pat Roof, John Hanna and Barbara ord were soloists, with Louise Oswald as pianist. Homer Taylor was program chairman.

AUTOS COLLIDE

Autos driven by Robert Lee Miller, 31, of 288 1/2 Broadway and John Albert Donly, 31, of the East Fairfield Rd. collided at the intersection of E. State St. and Lincoln Ave. Tuesday at 12:31 p.m.

Tax

asures are effective immediately without a 90-day waiting period. Other tax increases which could be effective in another six weeks are:

A 26-million-dollar increase in the state's corporation franchise tax.

A four-million-dollar increase in the tax on low-power beer.

It is unlikely the Legislature will be able to finish work by May 1 on the sales tax omnibus bill. It is the measure which would plug many loopholes, remove many exemptions—like those on cigarettes, alcoholic beverages, hotel rooms and some services—and reimpose the penny sales tax on purchases below 41 cents and more than 15 cents.

Malone's letter conceded that the financial program now before the Legislature is 22 million dollars short of meeting the DiSalle budget because of a misunderstanding between him and DiSalle whether the sales tax exemption should be lifted on laundry, dry cleaning, parking and the like.

DiSalle told newsmen he personally would rather have the sales tax exemption lifted on materials used directly in manufacturing and agriculture than to tax services. If all "used directly" exemptions were lifted, the state would get an estimated 110 million dollars in new revenue in the next two years.

The Senate will vote today on a bill to set Memorial Day in Ohio as the last Monday in May instead of May 30. The bill was scheduled for a floor vote last week, but was returned to committee for corrections.

Agriculture Council Officers Re-elected

LISBON — All officers of the Columbiana County Agriculture Council were re-elected at a meeting Tuesday night in the extension office.

Officers are: R. R. Barber of Winona, chairman; Herman L. Reuter of Lisbon vice chairman; and Mrs. Charles Morlan of Leetonia RD, secretary-treasurer. Robert Batzli of Hanoverton was elected representative to the County Advisory Council.

Officers will meet Monday evening in the extension office to appoint members to four committees — rural-urban, public affairs, rural living, and agriculture problems.

Deputy Auditors to Aid In Filling Tax Forms

LISBON — County Auditor Kenneth Bell has assigned deputy auditors to county locations to aid residents in filling out personal property tax forms. The closing date is April 15.

Following are the times and locations:

Monday, March 23, Rogers, Williams Service Station, 9 a.m. to noon; East Palestine City Hall 1:30 to 3 p.m. Wednesday March 25, Loudon.

Wednesday, March 25, Loudon Garage at Hanoverton, 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.; Friday, March 27, Davidson's Chevrolet Garage at Home worth, 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.; Monday, March 30, Salineville Village Hall, 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.; Tuesday, March 31, Wellsville City Hall, 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Thursday and Friday, April 2 and 3, Salem City Hall, 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.; Monday and Tuesday, April 6 and 7, Columbiana Union Bank, 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.; Wednesday, April 8, Leetonia Village Hall, 1:30 to 3:30 p.m.; Monday and Tuesday, April 13 and 14, East Liverpool City Hall, 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

4-H GROUP MEETS

LISBON — Thirty 4-H Dairy Club members and parents attended the club's regular meeting Tuesday evening at the Lisbon Grange hall.

A film, "Barns for Better Dairying" was shown, and Dr. John Liggett of Salem, a veterinarian, spoke on dairy diseases and disease control.

President John Rudebock of Leetonia RD presided.

Camp Fire Girls At East Palestine Share In Awards

EAST PALESTINE — Six members of the Camp Fire Girls Association were awarded the Torch Bearer Rank in Social Leadership when the group held its sixth annual Grand Council meeting last night in the senior high school gymnasium.

A total of 280 girls and 500 adults and friends attended the presentation of the highest award possible in Camp Fire Girls work.

The awards were presented to Linda George, daughter of Mrs. W. S. George of N. Sumner St.; Paula Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Brown of W. North Ave.; Nancy McCamon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John McCamon of Neely Manor; Nancy Bycroft, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bycroft of W. Clark St.; Mary Ann Stroud, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carter Stroud of W. North Ave. and Patricia Galbreath, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Galbreath of W. Martin St.

The presentation was made by Mrs. Andrew Bell, chairman of the awards committee. The program was in charge of Council President Robert Smith. Mrs. Ellen Wilhelm was in charge of the music.

Scholarships

The scholarships were established as a memorial to William H. Vodrey of East Liverpool, secretary-treasurer of Brush Moore Newspapers at the time of his death.

The camp fee is $30 with each selected camper paying $5 and The News and the Review bearing the expense of the remaining $25.

The objective of the camp is to acquaint those participating with the problems associated with forest management, wood utilization, reforestation, fire control and watershed management.

Heading this year's program will be Richard Shell, executive head of the Hartford School in Croton, O. He will be assisted by Gilbert Johnson, executive head of the Alexandria, O., schools.

In and About Our Schools

Junior High Assemblies

Charles King, former director of "Wings Over Jordan" choir, a featured artist at an assembly Friday at the Junior High School. This program, greatly enjoyed by the students, was paid for by money derived from their collection of tax stamps.

Mr. King conducted group singing and used the Junior High School Music Ensemble to illustrate his singing methods. The artist, a native citizen of Cleveland, received his education at Heidelberg College with further voice study with John Dickson and Thomas Swansea of California.

At Wednesday's assembly, winners were announced for the magazine sale recently conducted by the students, with proceeds earmarked for library books.

The ten daily high salesmen were: Gary Starbuck of 7F, first, second and fourth days; Marcia Everett of 7B, third day; William Crawford of 9B, fifth day; Bob Waggoner of 9F, sixth day; Wayne Washington of 7G, seventh day; Peggy Sell of 9F, eighth day; Sue Yates of 7G, ninth day; and Jim Schmid of 7F, 10th day.

Ten high salesmen for the entire sales were: First, Gary Starbuck; second, Jim Schmid; third, Wayne Washington; fourth, Peggy Sell; fifth, Mary Lou Earley of 9B; sixth, William Crawford; seventh, Gary Stamp of 8F; eighth, Robert Waggoner; ninth, Joanne Rea of 7E; and 10th, Sandra Wellman.

Gary Starbuck was the monkey mascot for being the top salesman in the highest room.

AT ANOTHER ASSEMBLY, Ben Barrett, sponsor of the 9th graders, explained procedures for electing class officers for the sophomore class next year.

Mr. Joe Boone, supervisor of the Youth Center at the Memorial Building, conducted a meeting with the group and invited them to join the Youth Center.

Guest speakers from the Senior High School welcomed the class. The speakers, officers of the Youth Center, were President, Bonnie Reese; secretary, Sally Fester; treasurer, Sandy Eyster; and representatives, Dave Hunter, Dick Semjenko, Ed Yates and Joe Julian.

Each gave a phase of the entertainment at the Center, where a party for the 9th graders will be held this week.

The Student Council met Thursday when Mr. Don Stells provided the music. Bill Hall, Lanny Broomall and Tom Mercer served on the ticket committee.

FIVE SEVENTH GRADERS, 15 eighth graders and one ninth grader attained places on the A-Honor Roll for the fourth six-week period at Junior High School.

In Germany Today All Roads Lead to Berlin---

Nazis in their heyday began a massive road building plan. 1936 photo records opening of new stretch of Autobahn.

Truck convoy at American checkpoint near Berlin in 1949 makes news as Russia lifts year-long blockade of the city.

Much of the history of modern Germany has involved that country's famous superhighways, the Reichsautobahnen (literally: "realm's auto tracks"). World attention is again focused on these vital links between West Germany and the island of Berlin as Russia's "deadline" nears for turning over to East Germany control of the city's traffic routes. Begun in 1933 after Hitler came to power, the superhighway grid was a long-range plan to "show the progressive character of Nazi government." But time proved the real reason was to facilitate rapid movement of striking forces to blitz neighboring countries. Nearly half of 8,500 projected miles of Auto-bahnen had been completed by 1939 when World War II began. Many new miles have been added since the war. They are four-lane, concrete highways, averaging about 50 feet in width, with a grass median strip. There are no crossroads or stops—no stops, that is, until they reach the border of Communist East Germany. Should Russia go ahead with its plan, the U.S. reportedly has drafted strategy to send an unarmed test convoy toward Berlin. If it is halted, the question of using force will arise. History may be decided on a German Autobahn.

But roads run two ways, Hitler learned. Above, 1945, U.S. armies race deep into Germany as prisoners stream to rear.

Berlin's Autobahn approaches. Russian plan to turn control to East Germans gives Allies their hottest postwar problem.

Glib Double Talk Could Cost You Fortune

It's Your Pocketbook

By FAYE HENLE
(NEA StaffWriter)

Warning to the unwary—Against the backdrop of legitimate Wall Street operations, one of the cruelest of rackets is booming. "Boiler room" operators are extracting millions of dollars from unsuspecting persons.

What is a "Boiler room" operator? How does he work?

He sells stocks and bonds that are worthless. "Boiler rooms" are illegal enterprises that got their colorful tag from the dim and clutter of high pressure salesmen working in close quarters. Historically, when the stock markets boom the business of these racketeers flourishes. It is flourishing today.

Listen to this: As a result of hard work and thrifty living, a student of the ministry at a midwestern university and his secretary-wife had built themselves a tidy nest egg of $3,500.

RECENTLY the student received an unexpected long-distance phone call from a stranger who declared he represented a Wall Street brokerage office. He offered the student the "chance of a lifetime," $500 worth of stock certain soon to be worth much more. The student fell for his glib high-pressure spiel.

In a matter of days the phone call was repeated. The "boiler room" operator now reported fabulous gains in the stock and after discovering his victim still had $3,000, suggested the sum would neatly cover the purchase of six additional shares for each share already held. He promised the $3,000 would swiftly grow to $15,000, but warned:

"I must have your answer in two hours because I am going on the floor of the New York Stock Exchange to list the stock."

This story was told to me by Paul Windels Jr., regional commissioner of the Securities & Exchange Commission, the government agency created to police the securities markets.

"You can write the ending to this story," Mr. Windels said. "This trusting student of the ministry is just the sort that would spend weeks debating with his wife whether to buy a $39 or $45 overcoat, and freeze meanwhile, yet he couldn't resist the lure of riches."

Of course the SEC is going to bat for this victim exactly as it is campaigning vigorously against all "boiler room" operations. "But," warns Windels, "As long as the public keeps buying, there will be 'boiler room' operators selling."

HOW CAN YOU GUARD against being duped?

Realize that no stranger is going to offer to make you rich quick.

Check on any stock offered by anyone. See if there is a market for the stock by checking the securities quotations in your daily newspaper or if you fail to see a quotation, ask a bank or broker. The chances are that if the stock offered by a "boiler room" operator has been heard of at all, it is because it's been called to their attention by a sheet of unworthy issues circulated by the SEC. If none of the sources you check have heard of the stock, certainly you don't want to be the one to win it.

Woody Deitch Named to All-Ohio Class AA Second Team

Lou Slaby Also Honored

Youngstown Chaney Player on 2nd Team

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Five youngsters from widely scattered spots today won scholastic basketball's greatest honor — membership on The Associated Press 1959 All-Ohio Class AA high school team.

Two of them—Ken Glenn of state champion Cleveland East Tech, and Benny Roberts of Middletown—will see action this week end in the state tournament. Woody Deitch, second team choice from Salem, and Jim Stone of East Tech, a third team nominee, also will be on hand—along with four from the honorable mention list.

The first team has everything. The quintet averages 6-4 in height, scored at an average of 115 points for the pre-tournament campaign on which the selections are based—and all are top-flight students.

Picked from more than 10,000 youngsters on the rosters of the 412 Class AA schools, the first five figure out as 2000-to-1 choices. They were selected with the aid of hundreds of coaches, officials, and sports writers from newspaper and radio-television stations.

Paul Winterhalter, a 6-2 straight student at Tiffin Calvert, won a first string berth as a reward for his all-around play and scoring ability. Paul, high scorer in class AA scored 635 points in 19 games for a 33.4 average. Dick Reasbeck of Bellaire St. John, tagged as the best of the talent in the eastern sector, had a 27.8 average.

Glenn was the big cog in the East Tech machine which has rolled over 49 straight opponents.

Elijah Chatman, 6-4 rebounding star of Akron Central, lowest scorer on the All-Ohio—but high scorer on the well-balanced team which went through the regular season unbeaten — was a standout choice. So was Benny Roberts, only returning member of last year's Middletown team, who steered the Butler contains right back to the state tournament in one of the year's big surprises.

Ed Ferguson and Lemoyne Porter of East Tech, Lou Slaby of Salem, and Ray Wolford of Toledo Scott were named to the honorable mention list—and all will be on display in St. John Arena this weekend in the battle for the state title now held by East Tech.

Dallas Sells $100,000 Worth of Tickets

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Dallas, which makes it's start in Class AAA baseball this season as a member of the American Assn., has already sold more than $100,000 worth of season tickets for box and reserve seats. This is a record for this city which long was a member of the Class AA Texas League.

To boost attendance the club also plans special nights when a fellow and his date or a whole family will be admitted for the price of one ticket, booster nights and music by top college bands.

NCAA Coaches Select Louisville To Win Tourney

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—The four coaches whose basketball teams will compete in the NCAA finals here this weekend undoubtedly are in better spirits today.

For 28 minutes Tuesday they took turns consoling one another in a session best described as an electronic seance.

Reporters at Louisville's elaborate Freedom Hall where the tournament will be played undertook to interview the coaches over a four-way telephone hookup.

Voices of the coaches — Freddie Schaus of West Virginia, George Smith of Cincinnati, Pete Newell of California and Peck Hickman of Louisville — were piped in.

The coaches' opinions of their opening round opponents left no doubt history's four greatest teams will compete.

Then they in turn discussed their own teams and thoroughly shattered the illusion.

The only thing that can be deduced logically from their discussions is that each is firm on two points:

1. My team will not win.
2. I don't think my team will lose, either.

Then the reporters asked: Just whom do each of you think will win?

And with the men who know their teams the best, it was Louisville to one.

Smith and Schaus picked Louisville because of its home floor advantage.

Newell and Hickman picked Cincinnati and West Virginia, respectively, because those happen to be the teams they play in Friday's opening round.

The Friday schedule has Louisville and West Virginia in the 7:30 p. m. (CST) opener and Cincinnati about 9:30.

Boston — Paul Pender, 160%, Brookline, Mass., outpointed Ralph (Tiger) Jones, 157%, Yonkers, N.Y., 10.

Featherweight Title on Block

Kid Bassey Favored Over Davey Moore

By The Associated Press

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The featherweight championship of the world goes on the block tonight, with Hogan (Kid) Bassey of Nigeria a slight favorite to retain his title in a 15-round fight with America's Davey Moore.

The site is the Olympic Auditorium, the time 7 p. m., Pacific Standard, and fight fans across the nation, barring the Southern California region, can see it over the ABC-TV network.

It is Bassey's second defense of the crown and it certainly should be tougher and more exciting than the first. That was last April when the little tiger from Nigeria belted out Ricardo (Pajarito) Moreno in Los Angeles' Wrigley Field in three rounds.

Bassey and his English manager, George Biddles, concede that Moore, the top-ranked contender, poses a threat. Biddles says the hard hitting young man from Springfield, Ohio, is the best Bassey has met in America.

That would include ex-champion Willie Pep, whom he stopped in nine brawling rounds in Boston last September; Carmelo Costa, Ernesto Parra and Miguel Berrios, as well as Moreno.

Moore cinched the title fight by also stopping Moreno — he did it in one round — but his calibre of opponents isn't too impressive.

By the same token, the class of Bassey's vanquished rivals isn't known on this side of the ocean, either.

Scoring will be by a referee and two judges, using the 10-point per round system — 10 to the winner nine or less to the loser.

Neither has ever been counted out. Moore has been floored only once; Bassey several times. Bassey has lost twice on cut eyes.

Golf Pros Get Feel Of Lakewood Club

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP)—Golf's touring pros get the feel of the Lakewood Country Club course today in practice rounds for the $15,000 St. Petersburg Open championship.

The 72-hole tournament starts Thursday. One hundred and fifty golfers are scheduled to step to the tee. The field will be cut in half for the final 36 holes following Friday's play.

Miami Beach, Fla.—Rudy Sawyer, 150, New York, outpointed Kid Fichique, 146, Havana, 10.

Two Women to Tangle On Wrestling Card

The appearance of two women wrestlers will be the featured attraction Tuesday night at Promoter Frank Julian's three-match mat card to be presented at the Hi-Neighbor barn.

The adversaries will be Ethel Johnson of Columbus and Babs Wingo of New Orleans. Johnson weighs in at 130 and Wingo, 150.

'Big Klu' May Give Pittsburgh Power Needed to Win Pennant

By ED NICHOLS

Brush-Moore Special Writer
FT. MYERS, Fla. — Did the Pittsburgh Pirates trade away too much power when parting with Frank Thomas last winter?

"No, not if Ted Kluszewski comes through. If so we'll have a winner—maybe a strong pennant contender." Manager Dany Murtaugh said.

"I ever make predictions, but —"

TED KLUSZEWSKI, whose ailing back dropped him from one of the top power hitters in the National League to a bench warmer, insists he is "almost perfect" for the first time since 1954 when he belted 49 homers for the Cincinnati Reds to lead the league. "Look," he declared placing a hand to his side, "I no longer have to wear a corset. I have complete freedom in swinging the bat."

He had just demonstrated by clobbering three pitches over the right field fence.

"We did sacrifice power in trading Thomas," Murtaugh admitted. "But we needed team balance and got it in Don Hoak (third baseman), Smoky Burgess (catcher) and Harvey Haddiz (southpaw hurler)."

"We needed a lefty as a fifth starter behind four right handers (Bob Friend, Ron Kline, Vern Law and George Witt) and I think Haddiz will win more games with our bullpen to back him up."

WHAT WILL HAPPEN if "Big Klu" doesn't stage a comeback? "Actually I'm not counting too heavily on him," the manager said. "I'm just hoping."

"Dick Stuart gave us the spark we needed which carried us into second place the last half of the 1958 race. He hit 16 homers and the big fellow isn't as bad as he's been pictured. He has developed into an average major league first baseman and still is improving."

Stuart had just committed four errors against the Chicago White Sox, but made three hits, two of them doubles, in an exhibition game.

MURTAUGH'S Pirates made the phenomenal jump from eighth to second place—a jump of 22 games in the standings—last summer. Usually when a club moves up so rapidly it goes on to win the pennant the following season.

Pittsburgh may have swapped away its pennant wallop, however, in parting with Thomas. This all-star third baseman was the fourth-best slugger in the N.L. with 35 homers, 109 runs batted in and 297 total bases last season. Naturally his role in the Pirates' sensational spurt can't be ignored.

Murtaugh doesn't agree entirely with the theory that Thomas' fielding was so poor it offset his run-producing power.

"Frank did a good job for us," he admitted. "He developed into an adequate fielder and you must remember he played third base less than two seasons. He was previously a first baseman and outfielder."

SINCE THE BUCS' boast in Bill Mazeroski as the league's No. 1 second sacker is uncontested now that Red Schoendienst is in a hospital, the Pittsburgh infield is exceptionally tight—with Dick Groat at shortstop and Hoak at third base.

Whether Kluszewski, never a gallezle afield, will plug the hole entirely if he does stage a comeback, is questionable.

Murtaugh thinks he has the defensive answer in Rocky Nelson when he wants to platoon. But Rocky has failed as a hitter with so many major league teams.

Without Thomas' bat, the Bucs will have to win more games the hard way, on limited runs. They have the pitching to do just that—with a tighter defense.

FOR OUTFIELD depth Murtaugh has Roman Mejias, who hit .268 in 76 games, and two promising youngsters—Jim McDaniel and Joe Christopher. Stuart also has been working in the outfield, just in case.

Murtaugh expects Burgess to catch regularly, so as to utilize his timely bat. Behind him naturally is Hank Foiles, who caught 104 games in 1958, but was a weak .205 hitter.

For infield depth the Bucs' have Gene Baker, former Cub; Harry Bright, Dick Schofield and Ken Hamlin, who hit .295 at Columbus.

Nationals Face Celtics Tonight

Minneapolis Lakers, Pistons to Clash

By The Associated Press

The pesky Syracuse Nationals meet the Celtics in Boston tonight in the first game of the playoffs for the National Basketball Assn.'s Eastern division title while the Detroit Pistons and Minneapolis Lakers have some unfinished business in the West.

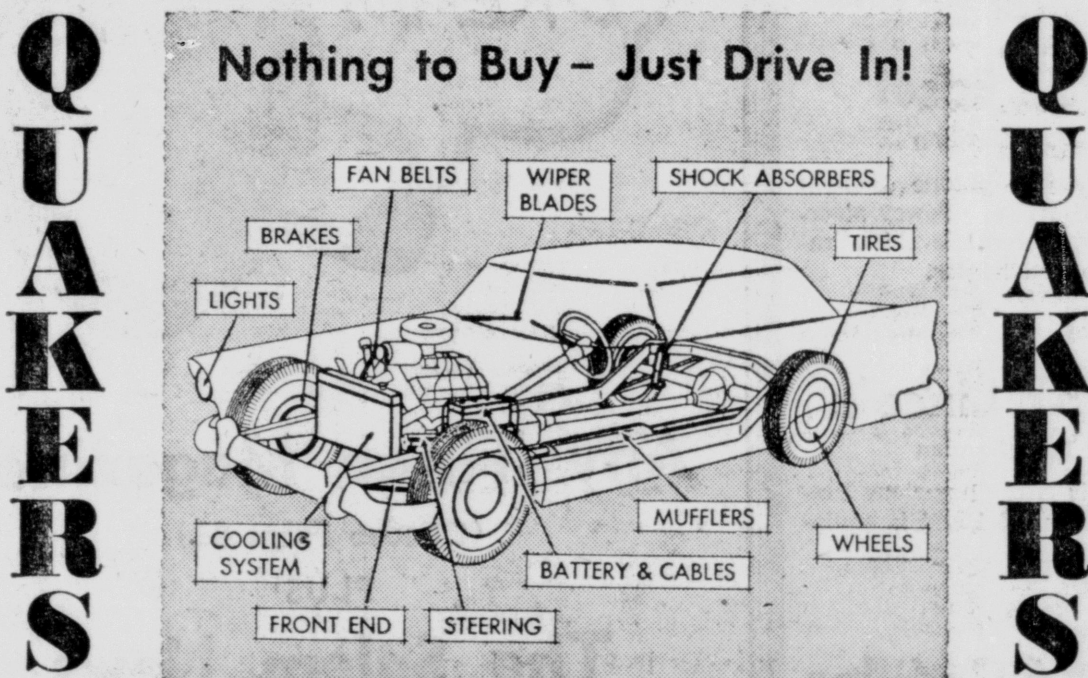

With the best-of-three series tied at 1-all, the Pistons-Lakers clash at Minneapolis will decide who meets the St. Louis Hawks in the Western division finals. The first game will be played Saturday night in St. Louis.

Syracuse, which finished third in the regular season race, knocked the second-place New York Knickerbockers out of their best-of-three series in two straight games. The Nats beat the Knicks in New York 129-123 and 131-115 at Syracuse.

The second of the best-of-seven series will be played in Syracuse on Saturday and the teams return to Boston Sunday afternoon.

NYU Blasts Oklahoma City

Providence College Shades St. Louis

NEW YORK (AP)—"It's unbelievable. It's unbelievable." That's what Coach Joe Mulaney of Providence College kept shouting Tuesday night after his "Cinderella" team beat second-seeded St. Louis 75-72 in double overtime to reach the semifinals of the National Invitational Tournament.

New York University also advanced to Thursday's semifinals with an easy 63-48 victory over Oklahoma City. This second game of the basketball doubleheader at Madison Square Garden was strictly an anticlimax to the crowd of 14,269.

Providence, which upset Manhattan 69-66 last Saturday in the last six seconds of play, now is pitted against St. John's of New York while NYU goes against top-seeded Bradley.

It was 66-65 in the first overtime when Providence got a break. They lost the ball on a bad pass out of bounds with 47 seconds left. But Big Bob Ferry, who led St. Louis with 29 points, missed a shot with only three seconds to go.

Ferry did put St. Louis ahead 68-67 on a three-point play in the second overtime, but soph Johnny Egan then canned two free throws to put the Friars in front for good at 69-68. With 16 seconds remaining Ferry got his 12th basket to make it 73-72. Egan however, again dunked two free throws with 10 seconds left to sew it up. Len Wilkens scored 30 points and Egan 29 to pace the Friars.

Oklahoma City made only one threat in the second game. NYU took an 11-2 lead, but the Chiefs pulled up to 28-26 just before the end of the half. The Violets quickly opened an 11-point lead in the second half and were never headed.

Washington owner Calvin Griffith, apparently willing to part with his bullpen ace in order to bolster other areas, has been holding out for a better offer from Yankee General Manager George Weiss.

The Senators defeated Pittsburgh 4-1 Tuesday in one of the three exhibition games played as rain idled most of the clubs for the second day. In other games, Boston beat San Francisco 6-1 and Cleveland thumped Chicago's Cubs 10-5.

Hyde allowed the Pirates' only run but pitched strongly in relief of Chuck Stobbs, who blanked Pittsburgh for the first five innings. Roy Sievers gave Washington all the runs it needed with a two-run homer in the first.

Frank Sullivan, who pitched six innings, and reliever Herb Moford limited the hard-hitting Giants to four hits. Ted Lepcio homered for the Red Sox, who boosted their exhibition record to 8-1, best in both leagues.

Jordan's wife became ill after the premature birth of a baby nine days ago. The baby weighed only two pounds. Jordan's manager, Don Neseth, said both wife and baby are all right now, although the baby is in an incubator.

AMMO-PHOS

FERTILIZERS

ARE HIGHLY WATER SOLUBLE

Experiments prove that crops take up more phosphate from water soluble AMMO-PHOS Fertilizers than from ordinary mixed fertilizers.

LET US DEMONSTRATE THIS EASY TEST!

AMMO-PHOS fertilizers are highly water soluble and we can prove it by simply placing the same amount of ordinary fertilizer in another equal amount of water. You'll be able to see how water soluble AMMO-PHOS goes into solution while the ordinary fertilizer collects at the bottom of the glass. You'll know then why AMMO-PHOS fertilizers give the quickest response to crops.

Questions and Answers

Q—What record was established on the island of Luzon in the Philippines?
A—At Baguio, Luzon, 46 inches of rainfall was reported in a 24-hour period, July 14-15, 1911. This is believed to be the world's record for a 24-hour rainfall.

Q—How much of the world's nickel is found in the Canadian province of Ontario?
A—The province contains more than 80 per cent of the known supply of nickel in the world.

Q—Why was London's literary club of the early 1700's called the "Kit-Kat Club"?
A—The club was named for Christopher Cat, a pastry cook who had a tavern in Shire Lane. He was known for his mutton pies, which were called "Kit-cats."

Inside Labor

By Victor Riesel

There is no pretender to the throne of Queen Liliuokalani, unless it's Harry Bridges. Hawaii has always been the pineapple of his eye. He has poured more money, time and talent into tightening a labor vise on the island outpost than Dole has juice—so it came as startling news that some congressmen meeting behind the House Rules Committee closed doors put themselves on the secret record with statements that Hawaiian labor was free of pro-Communist influence.

In that Rules Committee meeting, they were battling over Hawaiian statehood. Congressmen were trying to beat down charges by some of their colleagues that the 50th star in the flag may glow a little red.

Friends of Hawaii pointed to the report of a special three-man House Interior Committee which went out to Honolulu last winter a delightful voyage. They returned with news that they had been told that pro-Communist influence was just as solid as a grass skirt.

THOSE THREE MEN were asked by Congressman Walter Rogers (Texas) who had given them the glad tidings about the islands, through which pass more than 1,000 of our most strategic ships each year. The report, born of great philosophical introspection, was:

"We can only tell you this — it wasn't Santa Claus."

This was of great cultural value to my friends at the National Geographic, for they may have thought the old boy winters there — as who wouldn't. What the three travelers had put into the record — and what apparently was the basis of the Rules Committee decision that there was little pro-Communist influence in Hawaiian labor — was this:

"We were told that the FBI investigation, plus the Federal Court action, crippled the Communist apparatus in Hawaii and with the continued white light of publicity and the alert citizenry, it would remain crippled. We were also told that no proof exists of Soviet espionage contacts on the part of Communists in Hawaii."

No one raises the question of proof of Soviet espionage contacts. Nor can anyone quote the FBI on this particular matter. It has issued no statements. That is not the bureau's practice.

THE POINT IS that one member of the House Rules Committee, Richard Bolling, of Kansas City, Mo., told the group that he had it on good authority that there was no substantial pro-Communist influence in the unions.

Rep. Bolling is a former teacher. He was asked on what he based his information. He told the off-the-record Rules Committee session that he had a letter from a reliable source.

The ex-school teacher should find it fascinating, therefore, to sit in on a session of the House Un-American Activities Committee on March 24. Mr. Bridges, president of the International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union, has been subpoenaed to appear before it to answer questions on his recent conferences with Communist leaders in Rome, Prague, Moscow and East Berlin.

For example, Bridges will be asked to explain why he said the Soviet labor organizations are more democratic than some U.S. unions — when virtually all students of Russian trade unions see them as state-controlled production speed-up mechanisms without the right to strike.

It is anyone's privilege to be uninformed. But it doesn't appear to be the right of those making our laws to abuse that privilege. The question of statehood is one thing. But a realistic analysis of union power is another.

IT WAS BRIDGES' union newspaper which printed a big two-column spread friendly to those U.S. soldiers who turned against us in Chinese prison camps.

It was Bridges' union which was tried by its peers in CIO nine years ago and found to be following the Communist line. It is this union chief who has blistered U.S. positions — and talked warmly of Soviet China.

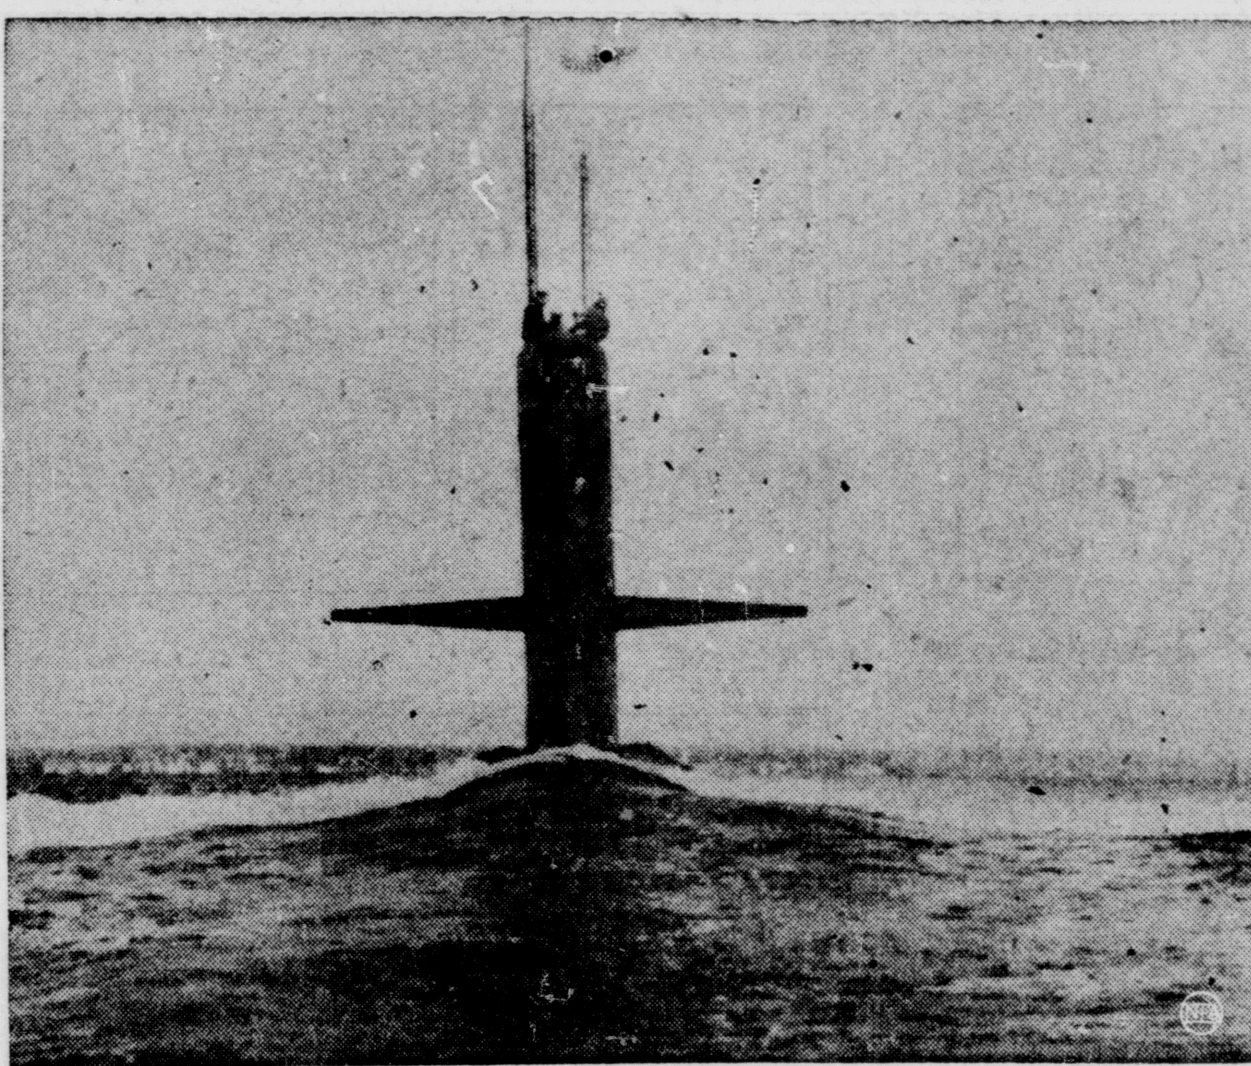

It is this man Bridges who met regularly with the pro-Communist bloc inside the old CIO.

It is this man and many of his followers who are sufficiently powerful to paralyze the Hawaiian economy and who have considerable influence inside the island legislature. That is fact. The rest is rhetoric and a prelude to history.

Beaver Local Students Win Science Fair Honors

Donald Derring, seventh grader at Beaver Local School, received third place ribbon for his drawing of the solar system, which he submitted for competition in the Science Fiction Fair last weekend at Westgate School, East Liverpool.

Tomorrow at 7:30 p.m. the Beaver Local dramatics students will present Alice in Wonderland at United Local School. Another performance will be given Friday at 7:30 p.m. for parents and patrons of Beaver Local District at Beaver Local High School, and Saturday at 7:30 p.m. the players will present the production in Salem.

HONORED AT COLLEGE

Miss Judith Ann Fisher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Fisher of 1069 E. State St. attained straight "A" grades for the first semester at Marietta College where she is a sophomore. A chemistry major, she is a member of the Marcolian staff, Newman Club, Math Club, Sigma Kappa Sorority and class treasurer.

Also on the dean's list is freshman B. Kurt Ludwig, son of Benjamin G. Ludwig, of 744 E. 4th St. Both students are graduates of Salem High School.

Clinic at United School Scheduled Thursday

LISBON — A pre-school clinic will be held Thursday at United School, Dr. C. S. Palmer, county health commissioner, reports.

Nineteen children attended the pre-school clinic Tuesday at West Point School when 17 inoculations and 15 vaccinations were administered.

Second round school clinics will be held March 20 at Columbiana; April 6 at Rogers; April 10 at Calcutta; and April 14 at Elkton and West Point, Dr. Palmer said.

This season, unlike last season,

Great Lakes' Ice Conditions May Delay Start of Shipping

CLEVELAND (AP) — Great Lakes shippers are anxious to get the 1959 navigation season started. They may be delayed by the worst ice conditions in years.

The Coast Guard won't predict an opening date for navigation, but if ice conditions aren't too severe it should be early in April.

Prompting the rush is the current production rate of the nation's steel mills; demand is increasing for iron ore, the lakes' most important cargo.

The rush to get ships into commission this year is good news for the lakes' 12,000 sailors. Many spent last year ashore and unemployed during the recession.

As for the ice, the toughest battle is always on the 86-mile-long St. Mary's River and Whitefish Bay, doorway to Lake Superior and the major iron ore loading ports.

Whitefish Bay and Lake Superior are almost frozen over, the Coast Guard reports. Only 40 per cent is usually ice-covered at this time of year.

The Lake Carriers' Assn. took the first step toward opening the 1959 season when its ice committee met March 11. The committee, which meets annually, determines two important dates in consultation with the Coast Guard, the U.S. Weather Bureau and other observers:

1—When to attempt navigation on the lower lakes—Ontario, Erie, Huron and Michigan — and the Straits of the Mackinac. A tentative date of April 1 has been set by the Coast Guard to try to clear the straits.

2—When to attempt the big breakthrough into Lake Superior. That question will have to be answered later.

This season, unlike last season, fleet operators are planning full scale operations during 1959. The only possible crimp would be a steel strike this summer.

There's still plenty of ore stockpiled at docks and furnaces, more than 16 million tons. But during the winter, when the lakes were frozen shut, steel mills were taking bigger and bigger bites of the inventory.

In January, iron ore consumption exceeded that of any 1958 month. And stocks fell below the 1958 level.

Dwindling stock piles and increased steel production are sweet music to the lakes trade. It means plenty of work in 1959 after a lean year.

TO DRAW JURY NAMES
LISBON — Jury commissioners Thomas Abraham of East Liverpool and James S. Gregg of Salem will meet Monday to draw 200 names from the jury wheel of prospective members of grand jury and petit jury for the April term of court which opens at noon April 6.
